So yeah, I just got my results and I've managed to graduate university in Cyber security with a 2.1.

Not bad going since I didn't put a whole lot of effort into it.

Already got a job also doing what I want to do, life is good at the moment - thought I'd gloat.

Its not GPA you mongo's hahah. In the UK its done on honours.

The structure is:

First Class Honours

2.1 Second Class

2.2 Second Class

Third Class

Pass.
