Thread: So I ate a lightbulb now my friend is engaged

Scriph - July 14, 2018, 3:49 am

So this one girl I used to talk to but blocked twice cuz she made a new account, then later messaged me on her brothers account.

So I was with my friend being amused and he wanted to get her Snapchat to annoy her. (He had a gf at the time)

Well he says he's gonna get her wrapped around his finger and shit so I'm thinking this is a bit to far.

Wellll his girlfriend breaks up with him and in a week they are dating. Backfire #1

So through my cringe about a month later (one fucking month and one irl date mind you...) I ask to eat his dead lightbulb (it's a fun "party trick")

He doesn't think I'm serious so he says " if you eat it I'll ask her to marry me "

So I eat a peice of that lightbulb and now he is fucked. A few days later he FUCKING VIDEOCHATS HER and asks her to marry him.

She says yes.

I ran down to the basement and cringed for like 30 minutes. Backfire 2.

He's 18 she's 15 like she can't even marry for another year.

If someone wants to hmu and shoot me in the toe that'd be great

GrandpaSherman - July 14, 2018, 3:56 am

What did I just read. Sounds like someone had a fun night but I don't think any highschooolers are getting married because of a dare

This kinda seems like a Jay from The inbetweeners moment. Full of bollocks, and continues with it anyway?

Antisocial - July 14, 2018, 4:17 am

You asked for it to be honest, you made a bet and held up your part of the deal and so did he. You knew about the consequences so why would you encourage it if it wasn't what you wanted?

I believe you are trying to reason with a 5 year old unfortunately. Best put your efforts to good use elsewhere :)

Ravioli - July 14, 2018, 4:34 am

I hope the 18 year old fucks her in the ass and he gets arrested.

I didn't expect her to say yes they have dated for less than a month....

Good, Jesus she was so obsessive..

Just wish I lost her completely.

She's ugly as hell. I talked to her for a few weeks until I met her irl and her pictures are misleading. She looks like a vampire down syndrome person.

No tits or ass, long toes, sharp ass teeth,

So I stopped talking her . Kept messaging me . Blocked her. She made a new account and msged me. Blocked that account. She then messaged me on her bros account.

Pissed me off

Op why would you do that? Did you know you can fit an entire light bulb in your mouth without it shattering but you can't take it out without shattering it? I feel like you'd try that out.

A lightbulb is perfectly safe to eat lmao. It's like eating large peices of sand. It won't cut you and it isn't toxic.

Wait really? You can actually eat the glass from a light bulb and be fine? You must win some pile of bets with that one.

Yea lmao. I don't make a lot of bets with it, but you can also walk on broken beer bottle glass if you crush it right.

Does it give you that tingling feeling inside?

If yes, it's probably just internal bleeding.
