Ruining the world for real men. Not these soy drinking girl boys but real flannel wearing, callused hand, lumber hauling, steak eating men. Notice I called them boys? Thats because they act like fucking children. Real men are getting harder and harder to find. Especially when you consider the monkeys toting guns in the 'hood'. Fucking lunacy.

Fenimism is gay ASF, the majority of real women don't call themselves feminists. Nearly everyone

I 100% agree with you gay marriage should 100% be legal but not bi or pan sexual marriage. Its just greedy. Pick one and stick with it. I also think women would be a lot happier if they gave up their right to vote. They are simply too emotionally unstable for politics and should spend their energy in a domestic environment where they can be of the best use. Glad we agree on this its hard to find someone so level headed these days

Agreed; having separate marriage types for bi and pan sexual seems ridiculous.

The right to vote thing i cant agree with, in england 7% of women call themselves feminists. Its just that they announce themselves a lot, the other 93% probably have a good dick in their life and kids, not caring enough and just getting on like normal people.

DARPA - July 20, 2018, 4:32 am

Chopping wood is annoying as fuck, I use a chainsaw. Chainsaws are so much better and masculine and dangerous then simple minded axes. However I must agree that if you are straight , white and think people in government are dicks you are pretty much the most discriminated person in society.

Naa im for Equality entirely. Women should have equal opportunities and they do. Its just in their biology to choose lower paying jobs and to be moms. If they wanna work go for it. but this whole feminist shit saying like "Oh they get paid more" is bullshit. Men have a higher chance at dying at work for a reason. I mean hey if women wanna take those jobs like construction be my guest and see how long they last.

TLDR:

Equality = Yes

Feminism = No

Redemption - November 1, 2018, 12:44 am

A lot of things in 2018 is weird in my eyes. Playing over 20 hours of video games in a week is considered a mental disorder but the average household watches 36 hours of television every week (These numbers could be off but they're in the general ballpark.) which is almost doubled the 20 hours for video games. Super strange times right now.
