Thread: Going for bike riding

?elevison - July 20, 2018, 6:25 am

Today I will be going for bike riding. I have a BMX bike, it's blue, and it's really cool. I have been bike riding for 10 years. It's summer here, and I feel like going for a bike ride right now. But don't worry I'll be back in about 30 minutes, but I'll have my phone with me, so I could still be online. Bike riding is great exercise and it's fun. I always wear protective gear such as helmet, elbow guard, knee guard, and gloves.

Do you ride the bicycle as well? When did you start and which bike do you ride?

LMFAO I laughed so hard.

PLEASE OP, Just stop spamming the lounge for at least 2 days.

That would be greatly appreciated.

I've even put you on my ignore list, but you won't go away. I might code a browser extension to hide your threads & posts & give it out to the community.

This literally has to be the most time wasting thing I've consumed in the last 24 hours, yet somehow you've got me to waste more time to post about it... Well played OP...
