Just made a purchase on this can't wait for my site to be finished so i can make some money he seems promising as a mentor.

SIM-433668 - July 22, 2018, 2:38 am

I'll pay you way more than you're asking if you can help me further with this. I am looking to start up something long term and serious and I have a nice budget.

Updating made $120 today in profit from my store

roltert - July 22, 2018, 1:42 pm

Any additional investment needed after the $50? Does the support include info on getting products or just the website?

There is thousands of niches and opportunity's for everyone to make passive income from having there own website this just gives me more money on top of what I make and doesn't take that much time as well.

SpyGuyz - August 9, 2018, 4:40 am this is the worst service i have paid for i paid to create me a website and he only created a poor website with 3 products only (never seen a shop with 3 products only)

then i said okay and tried payment method on my website that never worked until now every day he says i will fix soon and never do after a few days i went to create another website

so i created another website with a premuim theme and asked him to refund or help me to bring sales at least he said i will get sales and every day he says soon again and never did it and not even responding my skype although he was active here on hackforums

i thought his service says 24 hour support ? THIS IS FAKE although his websites are sucks and poor i never liked it

<https://gyazo.com/4b45ff0fdc71a7f09557596c013ba76c>

he only replied to me on skype after 5 minutes of filling dispute on paypal ? REALLY ? POOR seller

yup. he did almost the same thing to me. he's been stringing me along for over a week. his "custom work" is installing a free wordpress theme and saying he used photoshop. i disputed the charges on my credit card. im done with the bullshit. STAY FAR AWAY from this guy, he will promise you the world and never deliver.

Don't even waste your time/money anymore man. It took him almost 10 days to even DO ANYTHING and all he did was install a wordpress theme that doesn't even work. He claimed he wasn't home for a full 5 days at one point as an excuse. Bullshit.

Stop trying to act like you're going to help me when you have no intention on doing so. I was asking you everyday for 5 days straight to do what I paid you for and you either didn't respond or gave an excuse. Now I expose the truth on this thread and all of a sudden you're ready to help? You are just trying to keep up appearances so you can scam more users. Funny you only responded to me on Skype after I posted the truth about your bullshit here.
