Thread: Its Biker BoyZ - Temp account for Contact about my Account.

Biker BoyZ_Temp - July 23, 2018, 5:01 am

I have been banned for trolling? I believe this is a mistake or something taken into the wrong eyes. I tried to contact but page blocked me to do so and did not know what else to do that creating a temp account to sort the issue out.

If it was small i would of just waited but this is 1 year ish!

I never troll, i don't like it. never had.

Can you guys help me here to figure what happened cuz its unclear and i know i never trolled cuz i simply dont do it and i don't even post that much.

Im with no words cuz i dont know what happened lol.

PLEASE READ BEFORE GOING HAVOC.

You posted a thread asking if HF was dead.

What did you expect?

i closed it cuz i did not know it was not allowed. i was asking in a different context. like less active users. yet i closed it and tried to find junk button but none had it. so ban should be invalid?

Hope this can be solved. going to work now.

the ban is valid if a staff member agrees with it.

You can use the contact page if you believe you got banned without a valid reason. ?

Did you try to activate some brain cells before posting the thread? Like, here's a scenario for instance, what if you owned a forum and someone posted "Is yourforum dead?" How would you feel? udumboi

Sticks and stones honestly, but then again unlike Omni I don't need to deal with a bunch of crap like that everyday so that's probably why lol, nobody has infinite patience
