Do not deal with this user - <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3790528>

So I was looking on the currency exchange and saw v3rtices respond to a comment, I looked because I thought he had scammed before or something, but I can't find the post so don't quote me on that.

DoTurns out the cunt had scammed

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2828858>.

Also turns out the retard admitted to scamming him multiple times

Spoiler (Click to View)

Turns out he also admitted to scamming him because he didn't make a contract, so he is targeting users who are unfamiliar with the whole contract system.

He says he scammed this user because he the person who got scammed was getting impatient that he hadn't sent the paypal after v3rtices received the btc. He couldn't refund the user because he had already "cashed out" but claims he didn't need the money.

Nobody should deal with this user he is a complete retard who thinks it is okay to scam because someone got impatient? Nice kidding yourself.

Edit : Turns out I did see a report on this kid scamming, however it's not confirmed it's actually him, but imo it is. <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5869582&page=3&highlight=v3rtices>

Edit: Most likely his new account since he is temp banned! Do not deal with this user either!

Why would I refund a kid who decided to threaten me after being rude and spamming me and spamming that I'm a scammer.

Hmm... Why would you refund someone for calling you a scammer?? Explain to me if you didn't scam him what did you do?

Here's the full story

- 1] He sent me BTC
- 2] I tried to send, declines, wait to call them, they werent open to call, I take a nap for like an hour, I wake up to him spamming me and him calling me a scammer everywhere.
- 3] I said Ill send as soon as Paypal opens, he begins threatening me and assuming Im a scammer
- 4] I quit trying and just flat out scammed him.

Raymond "Red" Reddington - August 5, 2018, 7:55 am

I was about to deal with this guy but then I saw this.

You wouldn't have been called a scammer maybe if you updated him on the situation? You seem like you cared that he called you a scammer, so why actually scam him, why not think oh lets prove him wrong instead of being a fucking retard and scamming over $60?

I just got really aggravated when he started threatening me and saying he'd fuck me over. Figured why would I ever refund someone who says that stuff.

Well what do you expect? You understand when you think or have been scammed you will get pissed off? Just do the decent think and refund him.

Biggy - August 5, 2018, 8:54 am

His account will be closed for admitting to scamming anyway. Bye

You expect us to believe that story again?

You have like 3 scam reports and you always say PayPal wasn't available at the time you tried to send the money as an excuse. If it was the first time maybe we could believe you, but three times in a row is too much of a coincidence don't you think?

Anyway, you openly admitted to have scammed someone so we just got to wait for an admin to ban you.

Sirzato - August 6, 2018, 6:11 am

he wanted to scam me for 250$ lol gg

furija - August 6, 2018, 7:14 am

That retard v3rtices just tried to scam me lol. Thanks for the warning. I hope that broke ass bitch get's banned soon !

Wyatt Garcia - August 6, 2018, 9:12 am

Yeah this kid scammed me and is an liar..

It took 1+ hour to even update me, and he obviously wanted to scam me from the very start
Once I sent him the Bitcoins he told me "lets wait for 1 confirmation, because you can easily refund BTC payment" I was like what the fuck okay he is scamming

I love how this kid tries to tell this same story and making me the bad guy here because I threatened him AFTER he scammed me, of course I'm going to the fuck

Brokeass kid

LOL the kid dm'ed me trying to sell me btc. utterly refused due to his history.

Thanks for the warning guys.

But who tryna sell me btc i REALLY need it tho spiral - August 6, 2018, 2:01 pm

Update: Since v3rtices is temp banned, a new account called v3rticals has been created today. I am 99% sure this is the same guy, do not deal with him. He is most likely coming back to build up rep on a new account to make more money from people who aren't too sure how contracts work.

Sorry this is late as fuck. I'm the "retard" who was "spamming" him. My threat was to post a dispute lmao and I didn't get impatient. He had no problem replying with his BTC when needed then bam. Offline.

Nonetheless

Thank you to whoever had him banned

It was also $100 not that it matters. I did end up saying I didn't care. Karma will get him.
