Thread: [Scammed \$55 by ?Frost \[2303491\] Refunded](#)

Tiny ?ick - August 7, 2018, 8:59 pm

Contacted this user for an exchange from his thread, <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5870167> , Went first and sent him PP, than he stated that he withdrew the btc to my address however never provided a ScreenShot or Tx Id for me. Than when I asked for a ss or tx id, he opened the message and simply ignored. I have waited over 72 hours for him to respond and though he hasn't been on, he hasn't responded to my message so I think it's time to dispute it.

This is sad, hopefully it gets resolved with peace!

How sad... I hope he pays you back...if you don't get your money back then report online. I know one growing platform. his name is Scampedia App, they will publish your full story without disclosing your identity also they will viral your post through the Facebook Ad campaign for maximum reach, And what's the funniest thing is that's free.

But now has returned has not responded to the thread and has ip's matching other members. I have already filed a dispute on paypal as well considering it has been over 8 days. Even if I am out $55 that's not shit.
