Thread: What Devil Fruit, or Fruit\(s\) would you consume if any?

If you were in One Piece and you could consume a devil fruit what would you go for?

Personally I'd go for:

1. Goro Goro no Mi

Description: The Goro Goro no Mi is a Logia-type Devil Fruit that allows the user to create, control, and transform into electricity at will, making the user a Lightning Human

I'd find great use for this in Combat, as well as Speed and being able to resist any and all physical Damage.

2. Yami Yami no Mi

Description: The Yami Yami no Mi is a Logia-type Devil Fruit that allows the user to create and control darkness at will, making the user a Darkness Human.

This one would be pretty fun as well, Not so great in combat without another one to use with it but in certain situations it would prove very useful. It looks really cool too though.

3. Hie Hie no Mi

Description: The Hie Hie no Mi is a Logia-type Devil Fruit that allows the user to create, control, and transform into ice at will, turning the user into a Freezing Human

This would be great for Transportation around the Sea's. It could also be used very well in tons of situations, all in all even alone this Devil Fruit is amazing to have.

4. Gura Gura no Mi

Description: The Gura Gura no Mi is a Paramecia-type Devil Fruit which allows the user to create vibrations, or "quakes", making the user a Tremor Human

The Destructive power alone with this one would be amazing, but combined with any of the others you'd be nearly unstoppable. I'd probably mix this one with the Lightning fruit if I had to choose between two. But if I could have all four, I'd be an unstoppable force of destruction.

What about you guys? Choices?
