Slight bug. Rep given button goes into the new notice on the reputation page

Unsure if it is just me or if it is the same way for others. Either way, small heads up if it does affect others.

That is not an original HF button. Most likely HFX adds this one, so you'll have to ask xadamxk to fix that bug.

You are using a userscript or browser extension that is causing an issue. Take this up with the developer of said resource.
