N1ghtm4re - August 12, 2018, 2:15 am

All you ever see in here are boring threads that follow the same concept

1. A Discussion thread that more than likely is posted but tsundere (who nearly should just be a moderator for this forum to be so honest)

-this said discussion thread will be followed by a funny comment by Japanese who is runner up for moderator of this section

2. "Post your favorite anime"

3. "Recommend me something to watch, or read"

4. "Who is your waifu"

5. "What's the best / worst anime char and why"

6. The occasional mention of MoeTube

7. The rare discussion of where we watch anime (yes we all watch that shit illegally if it's a new series let's be honest)

8. Naruto vs Bleach vs Dragonball vs One Piece

9. Boku no Hero Academia vs Naruto Dragonball and One Piece

10. Boku no Hero Academia vs Black Clover vs 7 deadly sins vs whatever

11. "Is full metal alchemist any good???"

12. "Is One Piece worth catching up on?????"

13. "Why do you weeps watch anime?"

14. "Convince me to watch anime" blah blah

Then when you come along and post something normal you got 0 responses.

Also, where the heck is everyone? I check this section DAILY but I don't post because it's so dry lmao (and I know that makes me part of the problem) but Jesus did everyone that likes anime get closed or something?

Idk I just feel like this section is pretty boring now, and being carried by like 6 people

Slycoyote or whatever his name his being one of them, That's Rainbow guy, etc.

We gotta do better boiz

Deany - August 12, 2018, 5:47 am

I miss the AA lounges so fuggin much

Aura - August 12, 2018, 6:04 am

OG Weeb reporting in. Time to bring back the compilation thread.

Lyralei - August 12, 2018, 6:15 am

It's never been the same after the lounges got closed.

int - August 12, 2018, 6:53 am

Its dead af so obviously its going to be boring

There is like 1 post a week here

Decim - August 12, 2018, 7:52 am

What kind of discussions would you prefer?

?roye - August 12, 2018, 8:15 am

Hahaha, this is actually true, and pretty sad!

Obviously not the ones being spam posted not it seems

Makes sense op, I can see how OP would be a little upset by this and how same thread over and over again gets annoying cause it will turn people away if they keep seeing the same shit.

And which Rainbow guy are you talking about

I wasn't being a dick, I was genuinely curious about what other kinds of discussion we can have here.

You<3 Imao is there other rainbow guys in this sec? I just couldn't remember the second part of your name haha.

But my point is though there's a lot of content out there with anime, it would be more interesting to really discuss things like actual weeb do for example what I posted yesterday:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5872767>

Let's discuss the details of a series, the power scaling, the philosophy, whats going on in the anime world etc

There's always some new BS about Bleach, never posted?

I think I saw something about 7 Deadly Sins ending, never posted?

New DBS Movie has been releasing a lot of more content but I haven't seen anything of that either.

Obviously I can go off site and be entertained with all this but, It would be more fun to be able to discuss it here with the people I see post often whose opinion I can actually respect oppose to the randoms on a blog site or just anything of that nature.

Idk I just woke up 10 minutes ago so I probably didn't bring the best argument but you should get the point haha.

I mean maybe we can "petition" them back in a thread in suggestions? If it played a vital role in the activity, then I wouldn't see why not. Discussion Threads seem to be the next big thing, but they only blow for series like DBS and BNHA because they're so popular.

Of course LQ Posting would be a potential problem because all weeb do is shit post, but we'd just have to dispose of that issue.

Aura - August 12, 2018, 5:06 pm

Good luck trying to petition something Omni removed because he was getting fed up with it.

FryPan - August 12, 2018, 5:12 pm

You're all weeb, so your opinion doesn't matter.

oneechan - August 14, 2018, 7:33 am

I feel like the older members have stopped replying as much and newer users are just kinda spamming.

Some good threads don't get replied to and the constant new threads push the better ones down.

It would certainly seem that way, I wonder where they've all gone.

Even more unfortunate to say, unlike the rest of HF, these members who have left haven't been replaced. As in, there's only a lingering few now and no one new is popping up and remaining.

The only thing I agree with you is the inactivity but every niche forum on HF is like that now. As for the 14 things you listed, I don't see what's wrong with discussing those. Just look at the anime subreddit, it's basically the same thing.

1. Discussion threads posted by a bot

2-7 and 13+14 is usually what's discussed in the pinned threads

HAHA Anime is fun that is all that matters!

Happeh - October 23, 2018, 1:53 am

Section suffers from newcomers and people not willing to have a laugh. This section was similarly bad when I first came on bar a few older, older members. But we cut into it and worked hard on making it fun, not just me but everyone, nowadays its people looking for a quick rec and thats it.

The AA lounge is what built up this section. For a while it was the only thing I posted in. After it was removed it killed the small community.

Nah, I'm certain those lounges were worse for this section. Before them there was activity across all threads, people making jokes and a general fun feeling. All that spread out fun was the centralized to one thread which meant all the others suffered.

F11 - October 24, 2018, 1:27 am

Kinda run outta stuff to talk about since it seems like people are always waiting on the next episode of w/e they watch to release. Usually 1 time / week I think?

That would be cool. I'd definitely participate personally.

As a collective of course, we'd definitely be able to reignite a fun active AA community.

If one is bought though lets not let it die and get sold within 6 months Imao.

6 months? That's far too long - let us make it 2 at most.
