Thread: [Anime Quote Guessing Game \[2018 Version\]](#)

DerMensch24 - August 12, 2018, 10:01 am

Hey peeps! Resurrecting this third iteration of this series.

For anyone new to this, simply put someone puts out a quote and you have 1-2 days to guess what it is from. Some key points to remember: Try to stick to one quote at a time. You may not post a new quote until the original quote has been solved.

Pick original quotes. Do not pick ambiguous quotes that any character could have said

The person who writes the quote is permitted to give a hint after 6 hours of no one being able to guess the correct answer.

Alright that being said, lets have fun ;) I'll go first:

"You're going to learn a lot of things, but it might be easier to keep living, if you didn't learn them, if you didn't know them. You don't realize your body is on fire and burning up because of the things you did. You'll understand one day. And then you'll realize for the first time that you have many burns."

Is from Violet Evergarden...

"There's no such thing as a painless lesson, they just don't exist. Sacrifices are necessary. You can't gain anything without losing something first."

i have absolutely no clue. but heres one from me

What does it take to end a war? Well, if both sides wish for peace and set aside their hatred... No. Warfare is nothing but a means of negotiation between states. Wars break out even when there is no hatred. Territory, resources, or interests that you are determined to own. Ideology, religion, pride. Wars are fought over those objectives all the time. Meaning that when those objectives are met, the war will end. That, or the war will end when the human cost outweighs the gains. Anger and hatred are only tools to tilt a war in your favor. I'm not interested in those emotions. So I wouldn't hate anyone just because they're Martian.

Nope

Alright since its been 24 hours I'll reveal the answer. RainbowHentAi was close when PM'd me some possible answers (doesn't count though since it wasn't in the thread) but couldn't post here due to his internet issues. The quote is from the main character Godo ~20 minutes into the film Hi no Tori 2772 (actually a decent film for its time). Its a spinoff of Tezuka's original manga Hi no Tori that was never finished due to his untimely death.

Interesting thing about previous (Meme quotes) from AUB (Have rewatched it 4 times) is that only coalgirls translation had that line and then they later removed the anime from their site, rest of the translations are subbed differently so technically those lines "man of culture" dont even exist now anywhere (except on anime streaming sites).
