Have an extra invite that I don't need and decided to give it out to anyone who I deem trusted and wants it. Just comment down below if u want it and its yours.

Not trusted enough in my eyes, and also never pm me with "thanks in advance", that just throws me off even more.

Still have the code and still willing to give it out to anyone who I deem trusted enough. Just post here or PM me.

Thanks for the neutral rep, that really hurts me. Also, I said anyone who I deem trusted. You have 200 posts, literally no reputation at all, and now the way you're acting, you're immature as fuck too. Grow a brain please.

Do you trust me enough with the invite?
