Louisveret - August 15, 2018, 10:39 am

Hello. I was trying to sell my fortnite account, and i got a PM by "Kaleb™", where he bid 100$, and we finished on 175$, so i added him on discord, i sent him the account first, since he seemed legit, he was repped and shit, then he blocked me after he got everything.

Proof

I got the account back, cause i had a security code, but its still a cunt move

This is not a valid dispute since you did not add a link to a contract in the OP.
