Thread: Dog Walk

Mister Slyther - August 15, 2018, 1:24 pm

Based on my previous thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5873767>

Decided to make a new illustration with lower risk, a bit simpler, and apply some of the feedback Rivalry gave.

Done with iPad Pro, app is Procreate, and the Pen is Apple Pencil.

I coded it really quickly, to see how it would look:

Hope this shows improvement:

Great use of colors and the strong pink. Only thing I would change is the face of the person, other than that it's well drawn, good job.

Graphics is super nice! Side note though, why would a dog walking company have a Ltd. business structure? Ltd. is reserved for companies who want to distinguish the limitation of their (or their share holders) involvement or power. I would only ASSUME a dog walking company isn't on the NYSE and wouldn't need a complex structure to operate.
