Thread: Scammed by Kaleb 3384515 for \$16.5btc - \$30 xbox Giftcard

Wintergaming - August 16, 2018, 2:47 pm

User - <https://hackforums.net/marketcp.php?action=profile&uid=3384515>

Gone along and scammed $30 Xbox gift card which is rather sad, opened a contract gave my btc address and was selling the giftcard for 55% retail value, was going to be using the money for rent which now I can't pay for so that sucks.

Be careful when dealing with this user.

Cheers I guess

Where is your contract?

The Host - August 16, 2018, 2:56 pm

Damn you should have responded to me. I would have bought the code.

Try and call amazon. I heard sometimes. They may replace or refund the code

He's viewing the thread "Status: Online (Reading Thread Scammed by Kaleb 3384515 for $16.5btc - $30 xbox Giftcard @ 03:10 PM)" but homeboy has 4 scam reports just view-able on his trust scan...

Search his UID and you find over 2 pages of reports and community alerts.

C'mon OP, you gotta do better research on the people you deal with.

I'm new to the site, don't have the upgrade to do it, was going to use the money towards my rent but that won't be happening now, rather guttered honestly, only have bo4 beta codes and bf v codes to sell now.

From now on, take that UID and enter it into the "Search" area up top, underneath HF logo. Even if you're unable to access trust scan or the deal dispute database, all the threads containing that user's UID will be visible as well. Sorry for your loss OP.
