OP, messaging you about this now.

Update: I have gotten the account today, and it's perfect! Able to login whilst taking advantage of the services as a normal student e-mail. The seller replies in a fast manner and is quiet friendly, able to deal with queries as this user particular gives great customer service whilst others could simply be lacking, however the customer service from OP. Is 10/10!

Would definitely recommend on purchasing from God-Zeus, any and all questions are likely to be answered, as mine were.

Finishing some orders right now. Online and selling.

superhybrid - March 5, 2019, 3:09 am

I still have not received a working e-mail address. I ordered on the 15th February 2019 (it is now 5th March 2019). I e-mailed the seller as instructed per his automatic e-mail, I put a notification post here that I also did. The seller has asked again and again to PM him the same information he already has or I manually took the time to give to him.

The last conversation was on the 28th where I replied with what he requested a firstname/lastname so he can re-issue another account but no answer since then.

If the seller asks again to "PM" him and get the run-around (as I already did twice) I won't. He has my information and I have been waiting patiently but it is not worth to pursue anymore. Don't do the AUTOBUY and probably stay away from the seller. If the seller wishes to challenge this I can post the screenshots of all the communication + timestamps. I have been PATIENT enough. No working account.

Bought a custom email, took less than 48 hours (~32 or so) to get my hands on it. Everything's working successfully for education licenses / drive and whatnot. I will be buying again if the need arises. Thanks again.

I'm interested, does this allow me to have free Amazon prime and office 365?

rejt - July 5, 2019, 9:54 am

Bought one random .edu email. Hope the turn-around time is fast. Thank you.

Received my password and user account and it says "Password was changed 11 days ago".

So, are you reselling these accounts to multiple people ?

Can you have this fixed please ?

Thank you.
