I would like them all. :D

I need to get some btc into my wallet to buy the other awards (through the exchange awards threads)

I reckon I am going to spend another $500 on HF. I think I spent at least $4500 on HF. From awards that I bought, awards that I bought through exchanges, and manual awards (like GA award (omni manually gave it to me), DNA and Eclipse)

It is pretty good having money and buying stuff that you want but prepare to bust your ass if you don't really have the qualifications. (like me) it is fucking hard to get jobs and it is hard to maintain jobs if it is something that you don't really like but have to do to to get some coin in pocket. I've been to many, MANY jobs here and there. Some good and some really fucking bad. It just depends on what you wanna do and how you enjoy it.

Trust me im the type of person up for the grind. I recently just stopped working my 2 job grind; 6am-2pm then 4pm-10pm. That will never be an issue. If im up for something; ill do it. Right now i'm currently gonna be moving onto my college campus next month to start expanding my reach. Start making some connections / networking.

There's always people that are willing to donate to the forum to give something back, and some of them have deep pockets. If such an award for that price were to be introduced, it would be picked up within the first few days.
