First of all, I will need your login details to add vbucks to your account.

All platform, however with PS4 is it little bit tricky, we will explain.

PS4 can be actively linked, it works now :-)

I am not responsible for your bans, however I do NEW argentina method and that method is supposed to be safe and we have received 0 bans from over 2000+ orders with AR method, with new we have finished over 500 orders with also zero banrate.

I usually finish order until like 5-60 minutes after the payment is taken but I am doing my total best to do it as soon as possible..[/b]

I had a conversation with OP via Skype to discuss a sale. One of my first questions was to ask him if he was from Argentina, I have noticed that since the patch most sellers that do this method actually live in Argentina. He refused until I explained why I was asking just to see if he was using stolen cards.

He gave some validity for his sales by linking his post on another forum. Finally, I asked him if he was willing to go lower as I have another seller on site who is charging the exact same price. Told me im banned from his shop.

i wouldn't buy tbh ur choice

My price is being said on my thread for a reason. YOU REACHED ME, so if you wanted and were to buy from him, why contacting me when I have a higher price ?

Sorry you are broke. You would and wanted buy but you did not want to pay requested price so fuck off.

Also it is NONE OF YOUR BUSSINESS TO ASK ME WHERE DO I LIVE, I provide service, none of your bussiness where I live.

PS: Guy is mad I banned him from my shop, so he starts trashing. Firstly learn to respect your seller and his privacy, then buy something. Also I do not have price tag on my thread for the lulz.

PS2: Nice scam report from 2017. Also another good reason to not sell anything to you.

PS4 works but you'll need a second device to log into your account to use the vbucks. I just spend the vbucks on mobile and they instantly become available on PS4.
