Thread: How do Roblox scammers scam your account out of your account?

RaiderTheHacker - August 20, 2018, 10:04 pm

I have a question. How do Roblox scammers scam your account from you?

oRequiem - August 20, 2018, 10:07 pm

About 90% of the Roblox Community are kids so it's kind of easy for people to scam them. They believe almost everything it seems, it's kind of sad.

Phishing is HUGE on roblox. There's also a lot of people just cracking older accounts.

isu - August 21, 2018, 1:23 am

Can you monetize cracked Roblox accounts anyhow?

Well you can resell items for cash. My current account is worth 1k+ usd. If I kept all my old roblox items it would easily be worth 15k+. A bunch of my old dump accounts from years ago got closed when I checked a few months back.

I have one question.

How do you scam an "account out of an account"?

Sickness - August 21, 2018, 2:15 pm

1. Roblox accounts are easy to bruteforce (private shit)
2. Kids.
3. Keyloggers.

Thats all.

EnderLite - August 21, 2018, 5:46 pm

Well most people that jack accounts haven't been arrested unless they were part of a huge database breach.

Hornbuckle - August 21, 2018, 8:19 pm

What happens in most cases is that they will trick people into giving them accounts under the guise of receiving free robux.

Not always the case, I feel like it's from those "FREE ROBUX" videos that have stubs in the programs.
