It's actually a common misconception that it affects your dick at all, it's actually just your balls that it effects. Your balls shrink slightly because they don't need to make testosterone because your now injecting it.

In fact my girlfriend who I fuck daily has agreed my dick actually got bigger since starting because of the increased blood flow!

Happy days.

Have you experienced any negative effects at all?

When I up my doses or change compounds I get acne on my chest and forehead for 2-3 weeks while my blood levels stabilise but after that nothing.

Bill Gates - August 21, 2018, 5:23 am how often do you get blood work done?

Every 8 weeks.

Sir-Teabag - August 21, 2018, 5:28 am

How much has it cost you? Why do you do it? Is there any sort of withdrawals if you don't inject for a couple days/weeks? Is it addictive? You say your girlfriend thinks your dick got bigger but is your uh 'quantity' more or less? Would you recommend? Do you buy locally, or on normal online stores or onion stores?

Hope that's not too much ;p

Each blast (taking a large dose of compounds to bulk up) costs around 600$ including medication to keep side effects at bay.

Each cruise (taking a very small dose of testosterone to give my body a break while keeping my test going) costs around 200$ for a year supply.

I did it because I was sick of gaining only 2.5kg muscle a year naturally. I now put on 2.5kg in half a blast.

If I go from a blast to a cruise I feel really depressed for a week till I realise it's all mental and snap put out it.

It's a little bit mentally addictive, I am addicted to the results and looks it gives me And how it makes me literally feel like a god on earth.

I cum the exact same amount and some of the things I take to keep side effects away acc make me spew like a pornstar and last as long as one too.

I'd recommend as long as over 19. People say wait till your older but any of the Instagram celebs and most body builders started at 16.

I buy online from a private email source. But I also sometimes get it from the clearnet yes. No need to mess with dark web.

How long do you plan on taking steroids? Is there goal you plan on reaching where you would be content and stop for a while? Or is this something you plan on doing forever?

Fire - August 21, 2018, 8:05 am

Did you reach your genetical potential before using roids?
If not, when did you start doing roids?

How long have you been training?

Any pics of your physique before/after using roids?

OnlyFinesse - August 21, 2018, 8:07 am

Do you have any transformation photos?

30y old boomer - August 21, 2018, 9:46 am

What age is it worth using at? I was thinking age 20 (which would give me 3.5 years of natty lifting)

yrnGarry - August 21, 2018, 9:46 am

Wow bro, this makes me want to do steroids. Don't over-do it though, my dad's buddy was taking steroids for 10 years straight. He fried his brain, he can't talk or move that much anymore. The doctors don't know what to diagnose him with, however they say he is fully conscious in his head and can understand what is going on around him.

Tay_Roc - August 21, 2018, 9:56 am

Are there Tabs to get those gains even not as much in short time? And I'm 28+ and I need to bulk up got two kids already what will you recommend.

B1g hackerman can right click, click properties>details and look at metadata Pretty much, this.
There is no need to go off topic. A simple warning in a PM would suffice.

Yes I take roids I am big man yaya I no use brain on forum yaya I no read GDP notice when Omni pushed it through yayaya security no important yaya internet yaya bad example yayaya tbh if you had a face like you do on fb i'd take roids too but that's not the point. You put people at a serious risk around you when taking steroids and chances are you'll end up killing someone. Just making sure you aren't tryna push any protein shit on people which you are. Disgusting. Even playing sports/rugby like that. Fucking loser.

And don't come at me like I posted some shit or whatever, you posted this yourself.

OP anyone can simply use your first image

And look at the exif data using a site like here

<http://exif.regex.info/exif.cgi>

and find your exact gps location. Might want to remove it.

I think complaining about it is another warning level. Anywho flaming someone who is potentially going to murder someone due to steroids? Yeah good job staff on HF. Whatchu want me to do, report him to his local for this? He doesn't really have anything else against him.

Vitani - August 21, 2018, 10:42 am

AMA threads are not allowed OP, sorry.
