Takes time but there are tools to speed up the process.
But definitely worth it. HMU when you get a chance, let's see what I can do!

I would vouch for this guy but I cannot. At first he seemed really cool and really friendly. We spoke for a few days and agreed to get a project done. All of a sudden he disappeared after we agreed on a deal. I will caution any dealings with this user.

Brownie - March 5, 2019, 9:56 pm

Back online. Was committed to a big project.
HMU for any quick jobs, I could get it done ASAP.
Please no time wasters, only serious inquiries.

(Mar 6, 2019 05:46 PM)joshguy22 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I would continue to caution all dealings with this user. Extremely sketchy accepted a project with me and we came to an agreement and he just disappeared.

If you don't have a contract with me, then please stop wasting my time.
I am not doing free work, and it looks like you have plenty of time to troll and waste others time.
I should be advising everyone to not deal with you.
Please leave me alone.

Thank you!

Again, do not deal with this user. We came to an agreement on something and he has since flaked. Still no response to this day as he post looking for more jobs. Do not get scammed. More screen shots available upon request. I have everything documented.
