I wish I had my ear pods with me. I'm at the office and I can't watch the stream. He has a nice beard.

Yes his beard is decent hahaha

He specialises with the guitar but his voice is getting much better! Better ask a co-worker to borrow a pair ;)

Thanks for checking him out man (no-homo? or full-homo? up to you).

Awesome man! Glad you're enjoying it, he plays music for that exact reason :)

Actually quite a few different genres... But he plays everything on acoustic.

Can see his song list here - https://www.streamersonglist.com/s/statik88_au/songs

Just did Tenacious D and taking song requests before he hops off! Give him a look <3
