Sorry to hear bro. Maxim is a toxic member, you only have to see how he acts offsite to know he's an immature child and can't be trusted with any amount of money.

That's because Maxim reported them to take them down and delete the proof.

That is an interesting story. Well fix this OP repost the images.

Maxim is the most sketchest user on HF in my opinion.

The point of this thread is to state that Maxim removed the images from Gyazo to discredit the deal dispute.

i'd recommend using sharex, you can save a copy of every screenshot you take to your hdd as well as automatically upload to imgur and have the imgur link copied to your clipboard looks like u missing point of thread as well

he is SHOWING maxim removed the evidence of him scamming by reporting the valid pictures of the deal going down.

yes no one knows why op used gayzo in the first place as of course they were gonna be removed.

obviously its too late, since he used gyazo what can we say other than it's a dick sketchy move by them and hopefully they will pay OP?... This thread is another reminder for people to never trust any user on the forum even if they're staff and they have to take care while dealing...

Sanchez Sales - August 27, 2018, 12:16 pm

I spent over $300 in their jlog project just for it to shortly close down. When I ask about it they just say no.

I think what I said went right over your head. "Relevant" meaning someone who's reply would actually mean something to the resolution of the problem, not everyone just repeating themselves.

Yes- the only thing anyone irrelevant can do is just say hope it gets solved.

On another note-

Marwix was closed just now.

Curious how or why Maxim is still a Mentor.

Evil - August 28, 2018, 1:43 pm

I love how Maxim is obviously ignoring these threads. He is now a known scammer and I am sorry OP, but you will probably not get your money. Hopefully he will be stripped of his mentor status. Very bad looking for the site to have mentors going around scamming and ignoring DD threads. Btw, looks like your images are gone again.

Bill Gates - August 30, 2018, 1:34 am

The minute any staff member has deal disputes that he refuses to answer, he should be removed. What it does do, it speaks volumes about the people who allow him to be in that position of trust, which he clearly has abused by being a little scrote scammer.

Ah I see. Omni has been busy with all the site changes lately so I guess that's the reason why he doesn't yet check this issue.

???? - August 30, 2018, 5:10 pm

This doesn't have to do with Hackforums or Omni, it's about Maxim and Marwix. I knew I had the possibility of being scammed when I dealt with them, so don't make it about that. But ya it is a little surprising he's a mentor, he disguises himself as a HQ member to the public but almost everyone I've talked to that's dealt with him says there are always issues.
