when i confronted him on discord, he says he isnt selling xjamer's method and his method doesn't include a program
(but xjamer says that he allowed philippe to resell)
but he also says xjamer is like his best friend, and both the sales threads are literally the same

I would stay away from phillipe.

Let me clear this up. The program is 100% mine, Phil did show me the method a long time ago. However, my method and approach are very much different in terms of safety, I also provide how to buy btc for 0 - 3% as well as the program and the 20% which Phil does not provide. I, however, let Phil sell my program once only, which he did to Carbo. In terms of proxy selling, we are not doing that. I and Phil do not share any profit. Anything he sells he keeps anything I sell I keep. Ask Carbo as he is the only customer to talk to me and Phil.

Me and Phil are 2 different entities and we do not share revenue and I provide a different service then Phil. Therefore I am not proxy selling. Also the issue OP is having is a different and partnership issue.

Different

- Providing Program
- 20% & 15% rate
- Buying Btc for 0 - 3%
- Support in my discord

I asked you and you said that you allowed phil to resell (which i thought you meant the program and the method)

I allowed him to only sell one copy I am the owner and original coder I am .sorry if I didn't convey that correctly. He only sold one to Carbo which I am now supporting
