Then this dispute is invalid since there is no contract linked to it. Sorry.

I don't think he'll scam you.

You need to post more proof how the exchange went down.

How did you get his discord?

No contract = thread closed so rip.

If he did indeed scam you there's nothing you can do about it.

James Burnham - September 13, 2018, 9:21 am

I doubt he scammed you. He is a bit slow, but he is not a scammer. He had 2 chances to scam me and he didn't. Initially he did go offline like he did with you but I was patient because there were comments in his thread saying that he is slow, so I kinda expected it.

And yeah you need to follow the process correctly, verify through PMs and use contracts.
