Thread: Most my Yahoo's got terminated, any1 else experience this? Watch your Yahoo accounts

?K47 - September 16, 2018, 8:05 pm

So I have no idea as to why Yahoo decided to terminate 90% of my Yahoo accounts/emails, most I have owned for multiple years (even a few for over 10 years now), the only accounts that where not completely terminated was a few accounts I rarely used so I am guessing they terminated all the accounts linked to my ip address, they have all been completely terminated so I cannot even initiate a password reset link to my cell number or alternate emails as it just tells me "Sorry we do not recognize this account". They also did not just terminate my rares or banned word accounts but they terminated all my originals and 3 char emails as well...lost accounts like Due, Melanie, Vincent, FuckNow, SexyMotherFucker, 456.com.tw, -JM-, _Fil_, kode_, 731, and pretty much every other Yahoo email I owned (gonna be a bitch updating all my other rare emails & premium accounts and removing the tons of alternate yahoo emails I linked them to smdh)

Anyways I'm just posting this to see if anyone else had their Yahoo accounts terminated this weekend or if you heard of any other crackers that had all their Yahoo rares deleted recently and knows that the deal is with this? I will call tech support tomorrow to see if I can get any answers but you know how these IT customer support people are, will just give you some bs answer and tell you to create a new account so not hopeful thats going to do anything but gotta try at least.

(If you're currently cracking Yahoo's or resetting through a grouping email method I would change your IP address or cut back on the Yahoo cracking for the meantime if they are indeed watching IP's that are resetting old Yahoo emails)

This happened to my rares. In my case I tried to login to different svrs and some worked. I noticed all registrd thru Yahoo Games fully deleted.

Yeah

I was heavy into the Yahoo scene starting back in 99 using Toms crackers or Matrix Y!crack & would hang out in the Hackers Lounge 1&2 and the main spot "Change Room". See all the Yahoo's I lost in 1 night on my old sale thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5617154>

Left me with a single gay 3char Yahoo G1D, but I am working in rebuilding with my grouping method & still resetting some nice Yahoo's each week, got all these P accounts last week like petty, pac-man, play.boy, culpability, parker-, poptart....if your interested in helpin me wit checking/resetting OG Yahoo's msg me on 1 of the ids in my signature .
