Someone said they just realized that was how Logan and Jake were conceived HAHAAHAHAHAH my sides. I guess that would explain alot ? Seriously though I really hope that that girl wasn't underage, I'm not sure about the full story but the evidence seems pretty convincing. Looked back through some of his instagram photos too, his expression is unusual like someone who'd be mortified if a secret they had got out, maybe it's just my perception idk. This fame shit comes at a price even for relatives of celebrities.

Hi,

Your first two sentences ? ?

I don't really know anymore one the subject than what has been said. Only time will tell.

Fame, the double edge sword.

Time will really tell for sure, not seeing any official statements not even a denial

Hi,

That's true. Who knows, perhaps this is only the tip of the iceberg.

Edit: Minor Spelling error

Yeah true, have they made any videos since the whole ordeal? It would be kinda weird if they used that as clickbait for their videos and then plug their merch. If they did we would have truly lost as a species.

Hi,

Um, I'm not too sure honestly. I don't really follow the Paul family, I only hear about them from other sources. From the speculations I have heard about them in the past, I wouldn't put it past them to use this to click bait and plug a merchandise. Then again, that's basically what the majority of YouTube channel do in todays time.

YouTube is turning into almost all click bait now.
