Nick (Name) - September 18, 2018, 7:41 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): IT Technician, I'm extremely decent with troubleshooting Windows and Debian based Linux distro issues.

Other skills: I enjoy malware removal and analysis, also love working with RATs, I have my own personal networks using Orcus to manage clients across my living quarters. I do a bit of programming with C# and will only use .NET Framework 4.5 or greater for developing projects.

How can you contribute to our group?: I can partake in just about any Windows/Linux conversations and provide decent amount of explanations to problems, also can provide decent information based off of research and become profficient in topics based off research and will gladly discuss with others about the topic.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?: I don't like self boasting questions, so I won't answer this.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: I don't post threads unless needed, I feel like threads should be posted if important information needs to be discussed, otherwise I'll find a thread that exists with the topic. I can post to threads just fine if I find them interesting.

muzzy. - September 18, 2018, 8:32 pm

Bit of an edgy group name hey fellas.

Traum - September 19, 2018, 3:21 am

My main skill (Can be more than one): I mainly focus on graphic design, as I've been doing it for 6+ years.

Other skills: I can program a bit of Python although I'm a bit rusty on that frontier. Right now I'm getting into Crypto and learning about it every day. I find the topic extremely interesting and wish to expand my knowledge in that field. (One of the things I wish to find in this group.)

How can you contribute to our group?: I can share all the tips and tricks I gathered in my over 6 years of doing graphic design and me working with Photoshop/Illustrator. I tried a lot of different styles and techniques and know how to put them to use.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I've been in the game for a long time and know my way around. I'm not trying to best anyone, although I think I can provide a special point of view on any topic at hand.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes

How can you contribute to our group?: I can write tutorials and articles about interesting topics and comment on other people's tutorials.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I think I'm able to provide interesting insight to lots of things that people know less about.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes. However I believe that week isn't enough for writing technical enough threads. (Yeah, depends on what you are writing about)

Ganja - September 21, 2018, 11:16 am

My main skill (Can be more than one):

Programming/web development.

Other skills:

Online marketing (SEO/SEA), Pentesting.

How can you contribute to our group?:

I can advice other members, help them with any challenges they're facing.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?

I run multiple succesful businesses, which is my main source of income. Altho I don't do everything myself I am the main guy for programming and marketing, so I think I can help out a lot of people wishing to achieve the same. I also completed most, if not all, hacking challenges posted here.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:

No, my activity on HF really depends on how busy I am with work.

mvmt - September 21, 2018, 12:34 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one):

Business development, cryptocurrencies

Other skills:

Marketing

How can you contribute to our group?:

Throughout my years in crypto and business, I've compiled quite a network of individuals that range from developers, investors, designers, etc. Any project that needs to be done, I'll have the people who can do it.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?

I've ran several businesses over the past few years and have extensive knowledge in cryptocurrency investments, it's hard to find real entrepreneurs on a forum like this.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:

Possibly, if there is actual quality discussion in the SF

VulnTutorials - September 22, 2018, 2:51 am

TechniqueGott - September 22, 2018, 5:48 am

My main skill (Can be more than one):

Python Coding

Other skills:

I am heavily based around solving logical problems.

How can you contribute to our group?:

I hope i can contribute by using my mind as your support.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?

I am very dedicated to coding, because it's my plan to start my career after education in this field.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:
Yes

RAT - September 22, 2018, 1:58 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one):
Cryptocurrencies (mainly ICOs), Investing.

Other skills:
Mathematics, marketing, astronomy.

How can you contribute to our group?:
Share studies & researches about different ICOs (I have a great network of people working in accelerators, VCs and just in the whole industry). In addition - if I have enough time I can write a few tutorials.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?
Knowledge, information & no bullshit. My portfolio can speak for itself.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:
Probably - if I'm not too busy. Furthermore, it depends on how active the subforums are. Not gonna share everything if I get nothing in return.

Vossen - September 23, 2018, 3:13 pm

My main skills: Business Development, Business Networking
Other skills: Psychology, Marketing, Web/Backend & iOS Programming, Private Investigation
How can you contribute to our group? As I have experience in both business development and programming, I feel like I'm a good fit. I'm able to answer most questions around these topics and I'm always up for new opportunities. Also, if there are any people looking for contacts within the business sphere, I'm most likely able to hook them up, no matter the field.
Why you should be selected over anyone else? I've built several businesses both online and offline, and throughout the years managed to get several high-value business contacts. I basically have interest in nearly every topic there is and try to expand my knowledge on a daily basis.
Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? Going to be totally honest, posts are no problem at all, threads heavily depends on the current activity of the subforum and what things spark my interest at that moment. However, I do think a thread a week would be perfectly possible.

Clarence - September 24, 2018, 3:00 am

My main skill (Can be more than one):
- I don't really main ones but i just have a bit of everything like a charity shop.
Other skills:

Because I am Clarence and people love me.
Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:
Gonna say yeah

Caustic - September 25, 2018, 4:50 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Creating fake online identities/De-Doxxing
Other skills:- Doxxing
How can you contribute to our group?: Giving the group protection against Dox attempts.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I think my skillset would help the group immensely.
Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes

*I know that i appear very new on hackforums, I never really got around to being active here. Also got a phat 3 month ban (false)

Conscious - September 25, 2018, 11:22 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one):
Programming, Web development, Account Cracking(Probably one of the better ones on HF)

Other skills:
Marketing

How can you contribute to our group?:
Share all scripts/tools I code and/or do custom requests for the group free of charge like I usually do.
I am also an experienced cracker who lurk on other forums related to that field, I created configs/modules for almost any site.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?
Because I live by "Sharing is caring" and I intend to prove that, if I ever have anything to share I will share it, I wont charge for it.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:
Easily, YES.

vad0x - September 27, 2018, 6:26 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Social Engineering, Business, and Crypto trading.

Other skills: I can graphic design a little bit and also code python a bit.

How can you contribute to our group?: Put my skills to use and be active :)

Why you should be selected over anyone else? Because if i put my mind to it i could do anything.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes

BloodCyka - September 27, 2018, 7:02 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one):Business, stock trading (can show fidelity if needed), forex, photography AND i own cheap labor (NOT SLAVERY I SWEAR)

Other skills: i can do php and js very basic mostly done telegram related stuff for my seedbox etc.
How can you contribute to our group?: well, i work mostly on a computer and recently discover the bytes lottery and blackjack so im spending most of my free time on HF.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? obviously cause im better and did i mention i own cheap labor (NOT SLAVERY I SWEAR)

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: yeah, totally im doing more than that in a day this days.

Business - September 27, 2018, 7:27 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Remote Administration Tools and Marketing

Other skills: Crypto and HF Blackjack ?

How can you contribute to our group?: I'll contribute by representing the group positively by posting helpful threads in my areas of expertise. I am also willing to participate in group activities, projects, and/or giveaways. Any services I offer in the future would be completely free to all members of the group.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I work really hard on my tutorials to ensure that they are the highest quality they can be. Another reason is that I offer a lot of help in my area of expertise via help desks. Also, I have worked with numerous well-known members and successfully brought their products to the next level. jRAT saw a 200% increase in sales when I joined the support team. Dragon Crypter was only a 50% increase, but it was an improvement. Other projects I helped beta test and support include Babylon RAT and OSCelestial RAT. On top of my Remote Administration expertise I also offer a strong marketing foundation.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: I will surpass that, I assure you.

X00AD - September 28, 2018, 5:03 am

My main skill (Can be more than one): Programming (C#), Social Engineering, E-Whoring

Other skills: Shopify

How can you contribute to our group?: I can code tools which people will request. And I can share some of my knowledge on the skills I own.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes I can.

Kind Regards,
Xangu.

V3NOM - September 28, 2018, 7:05 am

My main skill : Memes. No wait. Currently im focused on Social Networks. Hacking related-social engineering.

Other skills:Actually I have a good general knowledge and able to participate in many topics. I am/was a gamer, still up to date, and I am very familiar with the crypto market. I like to believe im relatively wise for my age.

How can you contribute to our group?: Currently I am working as system administrator Windows, and I have good business knowledge (ERP company). As I mentioned I can give a good and well supported input on many topics, concerning politics, hardware, software, personal life.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?I actually do not believe I am that much more than everyone else. But most likely because I am not selling ebooks and im not a ewhore. Also I believe I will be positive member of the group rather than being a negative addition.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes.

Ømen Xiii - September 28, 2018, 7:08 am

My main skill (Can be more than one):

Social networking, marketing and promotion.

Other skills: I'm a personal trainer if anyone needs help with that area.

How can you contribute to our group?: I can help contribute to the group in whatever way I can help the most. I seek to help solve problems in anyway necessary. I'd love to share knowledge and learn a little bit of everything from the diverse people in the group.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I think I can be a help to the group and help represent the group in a highly respectable demeanor. I don't think I'm personally better than anyone but if something needs to be done I do my best to get it done as best as I can. I just hope to meet some knowledgeable people and grow connections and friendships.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes

Pikachu - September 28, 2018, 7:31 am

My main skill (Can be more than one):
Web Design/Coding

Other skills:
Software Engineering/GUI Designing, Gfx Design

How can you contribute to our group?:
I would love to help out with any and all future projects that the group would have to offer, so i would contribute my time and skills to help the group out as much and as best that i can.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?
Whether or not im accepted into the group, i believe anyone has a chance, i am not very special to consider myself above everyone else, so i wouldn't see why i should be chosen over all, im all for equal opportunity, If i am accepted into the group, it will be because fate itself has chosen for me.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:
Yes, absolutely :)

Meterpreter - September 30, 2018, 8:24 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Bachelor of Psychology, with high knowledge in science (predominantly neuroscience) and research

Other skills: Have a Diploma in Information Technology Networking. Had a penetration testing business a few years ago, now I just study full-time Psych.

How can you contribute to our group?: A lot of people think Psychology immediately == Psychologist/Psychiatrist but that's not true. I can help with marketing appeal and how to convey messages to audiences. Wouldn't hurt to have a psych knowledgeable person to assist you "Sociopaths" with everyday issues, call it a personal counselor.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I don't believe there to be a lot of people here with similar knowledge to me. I have asked many times if there are Psychology majors here, but never get a response. Guess it's understandable due to HackForums being predominantly computer orientated.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes, I'll set the subforum as my homepage.

Tech - October 1, 2018, 4:27 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Programming, third-year CompSci major, proficient in C# and Python

Other skills: Shooting, Everything linux related, webservers and front end web design

How can you contribute to our group?: I'm always open to share my knowledge and learn something in return.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? Been on the forum longer than most other people, never had a neg rep (Before they were reset) and all my trades have gone smoothly

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? Yes

Gorbachev - October 1, 2018, 8:19 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Programming, Coding, and Server Development.

Other skills: Systems Administration, and Hosting.

How can you contribute to our group?: I could possibly share techniques with what I am learning through university, or help create possible projects for the group. I could also just provide general feedback on other users' ideas and projects hopefully making a big collective of people working together in the group.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? Honestly I am a open minded and genuine guy, I try to help out other people whenever and however I can. I won't be a absolute bellend and act like I know everything in topics. I may not have much to provide in this answer itself but I can promise it will be worth it I hope.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes

WageWolf - October 4, 2018, 6:54 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Business & Entrepreneurship.

Other skills: Altcoin Trading, as well as the fact that I am beginning to get into web development.

How can you contribute to our group?: I would be happy to contribute to the group in any way I possibly can, including giving others quality advice, etc.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?: As I previously stated, my ability to provide contributions to the group.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes / Absolutely!

Don Vito Corleone - October 5, 2018, 4:13 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one):

Web Development; I'm a junior PHP/web dev doing mostly backend stuff and implementation in the frontend. However, I also do frontend designs.

Digital Marketing; I've held a couple of profitable campaigns on social media for clients. I actually took Digital and Social Media Strategies as my minor.

Health; I workout quite often and I practice MMA. I know how to eat properly as well.

Other skills:

PhotoShop and Illustrator; I only use it for simple website headings or fancy ribbons or even icons. I let professionals do the important graphics mostly as they're much better than me.

Smoking weed (if that counts); It's legal where I live, and I'm enjoying the fuck out of it.

How can you contribute to our group?:

I can share my knowledge in the areas that I've mentioned above with group members that are looking for it.

Possibly group projects if anyone is into that and we can keep a professional and organized structure.

Obviously my activity would be a contribution as well, can't think of anything else.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?

That's for you to decide ? Honestly, if you feel like I would fit in and my contributions would be worth it, that would be the only reasons.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:

Yes for 10 posts per week in the subforum. I only post threads when there is a purpose for it, so I can't promise the 1 thread a week. It really depends on the dynamics.

Thanks for reading ?

Fallenour - October 5, 2018, 7:25 pm

Network Forensics, Malware Analysis, Systems, Security, Cloud Architecting
Fullstack (Django, Bootstrap, *.JS, etc)

Depends on the group need. No reason to use a wrench to screw in nails

Im not sure about "everyone else", but I generally tend to have more experience in more arenas than most.

One thread and 10 posts? Probably, it depends on the requirements of quality, and LoE for the post and threads themselves. [Yes/No]:

KING - October 5, 2018, 8:29 pm

hash - October 6, 2018, 3:41 am

My main skill (Can be more than one): Software engineering with a focus on reference architecture and security regarding IoT and telemetry data.

Other skills: I do some stock market trading (low risk) on the side and photography.

How can you contribute to our group?: I can help people program in multiple languages, data science and teach about software architecture.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? Everyone has their own expertise, one is not better than the other.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes, as long I'm not abroad.

Neodraxis - October 6, 2018, 6:13 am

My main skill (Can be more than one):

My main skills consist of graphic design, web design, and weightlifting. All three skills have been aspects throughout my life that have stuck with me and are skills I will continue. The topics are not only interesting, they're creative which is one of my main strengths.

Other skills:

I am a proficient in a few computer programming languages. Lua, Java, and Python. I've learned Java and Python in school and essentially learned it the way it is taught. Unlike the other skills I consist of, this was not self-taught. As for Lua, it was self-taught because of my developing of Garry's Mod plugins. Additionally, a skill I've recently gotten into is crypto currency investments. It's been something I've been doing for the past year or so, and have found great success in.

How can you contribute to our group?:

I would be more than glad to help contribute to the group through the means of my graphic expertise or development expertise. Additionally, because most of my skills are self-taught I would be glad to provide options to help learn more about specific subjects. Being realistic, if there is anything I can do to help out I will, but I won't be going to any extremes.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?

Other than the fact that I am extremely active on HackForums I would not say I am anyone too special. I don't like to look at others as being better than one another for a certain reason. Although I'm not necessarily posting 24/7, I am constantly lurking and getting up-to-date with everything going on.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:

Yes, of course! If the subforum is active I would be glad to meet that criteria.

ArmDegree - October 6, 2018, 10:40 am

My main skill (Can be more than one): Webhacking/rooting/spamming

Other skills: Cracking of hashes + cracking of rdp's

How can you contribute to our group?: Want to learn and choose a program language.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? Always online and willing to learn a lot.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? Yes we should have our own irc/discord/Cryptocat server where we can talk business and projects. Or XMPP chat, Let me know. ;) [Yes/No]:

Cavalier - October 6, 2018, 2:46 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): If I sum it up, I'm an all in one internet god, but a giving god. I want to see others live the life style. You know what I mean, you own a group. ;)

Other skills: Connections, socializing, I got that. Making money, which is my main purpose on this earth, I got that. I'm very good with amazon marketing, marketing in general. My current amazon product does 20k monthly revenue. I'd love to get people in the group on amazon. I will personally mentor every single one of them.

How can you contribute to our group?: I can help with everything. The entire reason I want to join is to make more friends that do similar things as me. I want to teach people how to make money, I want to teach the people with money how to get started with amazon, and way more. I'm overall very well rounded. PM me about this. I have every angle, so trust me, I can help big time. :)

I've done every money making method on the internet, everything ebay, everything social media, amazon, all ecommerce, smm panel, blackhat stuff irrelevant to say what. EVERYTHING. I can help with everything.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I have tons of skill sets, and I have websites, stats, profiles, and money to prove it. I literally have live proof of multiple multiple ways that I should be selected over someone else. Again, msg me about this if curious. I can show you my amazon, my minecraft business that made ~800k over 5 years, my 130k youtube channel, my huge smm sites, my OG @'s and stat pages. I can show you my ecommerce stats, etc.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:

I'm not sure if I can make a thread or post 10 times a week. I'm not that active on hf. But if there's a group chat, which of course there is. I will mostly be in there 24/7 collaborating and working with members.

Note: I don't care about the "Presence" the group brings to me on hf. I care about the members of the group, and their knowledge combined with mine. I want BIG things.

elterco - October 6, 2018, 2:56 pm

My main skill : I have a degree on AV communications. I can produce any AV content.

Other skills: I'm native spanish and fluent english-

My main skill (Can be more than one):Reverse Engineer and SE

Other skills:WebDev for 5years, Pentesting, and i can say i am advanced in marketing and copywritting.

How can you contribute to our group?:I have spent a lot time trying different things, i can gladly say i have done everything except e-whoring.

I am more than ready to share my knowledge and methods.

Would be really happy if i could even meet someone who have similar skills so we can work on something together as a team.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?Because i can provide more than they can.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:Yes

Elysium - October 12, 2018, 12:07 am

My main skill (Can be more than one):

Information Security, Threat Analysis, Analytical Writing, Emergency Management.

Other skills:

Cryptocurrencies, Engineering, Open Source Intelligence, Data Analysis, and Stock Market Trading.

How can you contribute to our group?:

My previous work experience includes innovation in a multitude of areas, including techniques for more effective teamwork. I have been an active member of this forum since rejoining.

I can contribute to this group by:

- Sharing information
- Contributing to group discussions
- Providing analytical assessments
- Contribute by teaching other members
- Maintaining activity within both the group and the forum.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?

I have close to 10 years of experience in the fields listed above under skills. I have studied multiple topics at the collegiate level and feel that I could contribute at a higher level than most standard users. I believe that quality of posts and activity is an important factor to be considered for this group. What I think really sets me apart from other candidates and will make me a good addition to your group is my ability to combine activity and knowledge with my interpersonal skills. I value lasting relationships and actively seek to build those with fellow members.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:

Yes, absolutely. I intend to post more frequently than the basic requirements for this group.

Pancake Boat - October 12, 2018, 5:07 am

My main skill (Can be more than one): Social Engineering

Other skills: Adult Marketing / Cryptocurrencies

How can you contribute to our group?: I'm sure I can contribute to various topics because I find myself to be pretty versatile. I could help with adult marketing and Cryptocurrencies for sure.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I'm rather active, I hate writing 3-word posts and I love staying HQ.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: YES!

Let me know if you have any additional questions - I would gladly answer them.

-Caligio ?

savaged. - October 13, 2018, 1:53 pm

My Main Skill: Working with botnets. In the past I've posted a Basic OpSec guide and I'm active in the Botnets/RATs section, helping newcomers and answering any questions.

Other Skills: OpSec as mentioned above.

My past in computers: I've owned a computer since the age of 5 and grew up playing computer games with my dad, I experienced how fun they could be and then later on when he stopped using his I had more time to research whatever I wanted. I started looking into RAting and spreading methods when I was 10, back in the Dark Comet days and learned from there. I have always knew of HF with many friends using it however was scared to as I always heard it had a toxic community, although now I'm finally here I'm happy to say I disagree and I'm very excited to help spread my knowledge.

Why should you be selected over anyone else?: I have worked with botnets, RATs, miners and more for around 6 years now and can setup most tools out there, I have time and experience to offer anyone new to ensure they don't waste their time/money on tools that don't work or things they don't need. I've also setup websites, forums, shops & more, meaning I have experience in databases, different operating systems like Debian/CentOS and can troubleshoot on them and setup apps quite well for other members.

How can you contribute to our group?: Certainly, I want to spread as much knowledge as I can so that we can all learn together and progress. I'm sure I have knowledge that will be useful and helpful to others, and I'm sure others have knowledge that will be useful and helpful to me, I plan to be a team player in the group and help anyone with their needs/requests to the best of my ability.

Why should you be accepted over anyone else: I want to join a group to have a wider audience with my knowledge, currently I just browse the forum looking for users to help however if I'm in a group I can start projects and work on them with other group members or help them with theirs. I will help every member to the best of my ability, I'm not selfish and will spend hours of my own time and hard work ensuring the group member I'm helping is satisfied.

S3AR - October 14, 2018, 2:12 am

My main skill - Graphics Services

Other skills - Internet Marketing

How can you contribute to our group? - I can make some quality graphics services for members. I think we can make something like (Still once week, some member will get free graphic like, logo, thread design).

Why you should be selected over anyone else? - I Have a lot of skills in the photoshop and other graphics ways, so i think i can make anything which you can want.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? - Yes

My main skill (Can be more than one): Programming, Social Engineering, Marketing.

Other skills: Crypto Investment and Support team.

How can you contribute to our group?: I will help members if they need help in certain areas that are my strength. I will refer them to others if I cant do anything.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I will bring more value and experience than others over here.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes ?

Bear - October 15, 2018, 3:34 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): I work with neural networks and have been planning to produce content for HF, although life has been in the way, I plan to publish them very soon. I would also like to consider myself knowledgable of the blockchain technology, but nothing too crazy.

Other skills: If seen from HF, one could say that I strive to learn marketing, so I can maximize my business here. Oh yea, I think I am decent at writing as well. Social engineering and white hat hacking used to be something I used to explore, have moderate skills I guess.

How can you contribute to our group? I can always help with content creation, be it in any topic. I can help with anything that is crypto currency and block chain related.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I have been a dedicated member and vendor in HF without much complaints against me or my services. One could definitely survey if I put my 100% into whatever I set my mind to, by checking how I took a new service that I started in March 2018, to be one of the top in that section within a month or two.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our sub forum? [Yes/No]: YES

Other skills: Music Production ; Digging things up from the internet.

How can you contribute to our group?: I can promote positive vibes within the group and I can provide tutorials for skills above. I will be able to be online and I will be able to help.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I should be selected because I will be able to be a good member in this group. I am active and I can promote positive vibes within this group and I hope to grow and expand my account by joining this group.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes. 100%

Xi Jinping - October 16, 2018, 9:42 am

My main skill: Market Analysis

Other skills: Marketing, Data Analyst, Business Advisor

How can you contribute to our group?: Over my long course of developing my skills I've learned an essential tool and that is sharing. During my time in Sociopaths I wish to not only see an opening for myself but create one for the members around me by teaching, sharing and explaining new methods and information.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?: "Non est ad astra mollis e terris via." - There's no easy way from the earth to the stars

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum?: Yes unless it's not necessary, I only want to contribute with interesting info

Toast - October 16, 2018, 11:38 am

My main skill (Can be more than one): Private Investigation, Social Engineering, Penetration Testing.

Other skills: Graphics Design, Python Programming.

How can you contribute to our group?: I can help with projects that require skills that I own, and I can share my knowledge with other members.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I am very active and I can easily get along with people. I like sharing information and helping others.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: I believe I could, however I would prefer to only make threads and posts only if I have something worth to share or say since I do not want to fill the subforum with useless threads.

My main skill (Can be more than one): Graphic design and marketing

Other skills: Social engineering, ethical hacking/cracking, programming

How can you contribute to our group?: I'll be happy to share my knowledge in any of my skills and help others. Got hundreds upon hundreds of tutorials and books about my skills and I'll be happy to help anyone that is interested.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I'm pretty active and can get along with people easily. I have a lot of skills and I can help other people with their questions.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yup, I'm a pretty active guy.

Yin Yang - October 19, 2018, 2:31 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one):

Crypto, stocks, coding

Other skills:

Reviewing material, good in math, and a sports fanatic

How can you contribute to our group?:

What I can offer the group is knowledge and my help. I'm also an active member who enjoys teaching and learning. Finding a member such as myself who's mature and HQ is rare. I feel like I can bring many things to the group. I know more than the skills that I've listed, but I know much more and I years of experience under my belt with certifications. I'm an active member who wants to grow and share my knowledge with the group. Let's grow together!

Why you should be selected over anyone else?:

Many members these days troll and that shows their lack of maturity. I'm 27 years old, so you can expect me to be respectful. I graduated last in CS and work full-time in IT. I understand the importance of communication and how the lack of it, can destroy anything.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:

Yes

My main skill (Can be more than one): Programming.

Other skills:Quick to learn (If you would class that as a skill?)

How can you contribute to our group?:I'm currently almost 17 and at college in the UK, I do A level Mathematics, Computer Science, Engineering and Physics. I program at home and I'm constantly learning, my main focus being Visual Basic (From which I would like to delve into C#) and Python.

Why you should be selected over anyone else?I'll never give up and always give 100% to the group along with my studies.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]:Yes.

My main skill (Can be more than one): Cryptocurrency, cryptography & programming.

Other skills: Mathematics.

How can you contribute to our group?: Sharing knowledge, being active and working towards group projects.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? Knowledgeable and pretty trusted around HF. Will be able to give insight into many areas.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes.

SIM-403479 - October 20, 2018, 2:03 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): Business. I can give financial/accountancy advice where needed.

Other skills: Gaming, crypto. Quite a lot of general skills, it's kind of hard to list them all.

How can you contribute to our group?: I am a very active member and can contribute to the sub-forum!

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I'm super active and a longterm member. I am very easy going and will get on with anyone. I have been looking for an active group to join.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? Yes, 100%:

bfreakz - October 21, 2018, 8:47 am

My main skill (Can be more than one): Full stack web developer & Network Tech (Mostly with Mikrotik & Ubiquiti solutions)

Other skills: QVA testing, UX design, IoT development (primarily the hardware portion)

How can you contribute to our group?: Would be more than happy to assist any member in any field where I comfortably can.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? To be honest, I've been here for 8 years although lurking the past couple. Perhaps this group could allow me to interact with more people and help out. I like being and feeling useful.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes

BlueRabbits - October 21, 2018, 6:03 pm

My main skill (Can be more than one): I've been working on the internet since i was 14. There's no job for me i can not understand or accomplish. Though i'm not good at hacking, just the basics of programming.

Other skills: I'm earning my existence from the online income. Got rent, bills, an university to pay annually and much more and still i can afford an old Mercedes just for my driving pleasure.

How can you contribute to our group?: Well, i'm always online, i just preferred to remain silent and in shadows to be honest, just self preservation i guess. But i can do a lot of things. From Social Engineering, to marketing and ideas that maybe you'll be amazed of. I worked alone, and i'm feeling like i need a group to be part of. A serious group, where i can find serious members, but with a good taste also in sarcasm and jokes.

Why you should be selected over anyone else? Because on all of these years i learnt that doesn't matter what you know or what you can do. What really matter is how you adapt to situations that changes every moment, day by day. How you search informations that you really need. How you ask the questions and what you want to know. There's no bad answer, just a bad question asked. I know what to search, where to search and how to adapt. Being alone since i was 14, put me in a rough situation. Which thought me how to survive and how to thrive to my goals and dreams. Everything depends on me! EVERYTHING! And everything depends on yourself as well. Your mind, your happiness, your entire world. Because everything that makes you what you are right now, comes from the inside. And what comes from the inside, affects directly what's on the outside.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes, i can manage to do that.

My main skill (Can be more than one): Communication, I believe I'm a great communicator. I love to talk and to meet new members, as well as people in real life. I feel like this is key to be able to have a successful life. You'll be able to connect with way more people, and be able to get your foot in the door for jobs, and other occasions.

Other skills: I'm friendly, and I also have a good sense of humor.

How can you contribute to our group?: I have been on HF for almost 9 years, I have lots of knowledge from lurking on the forums, reading threads. I feel like I'll be able to contribute to your group in everyway possible

Why you should be selected over anyone else? I'm as good as the next man, to be honest. But I won't let ya down.

Will you be able to make at least 1 thread, 10 posts per week in our subforum? [Yes/No]: Yes.
