The dispute is invalid due to the absence of contract. Sorry for your loss.

Sorry for your loss, but a valid contract is required to start a deal dispute

If you have checked the thread you'd see the service is a autobuy just like those Netflix account services. I'm done dealing with HF marketplace

Adsmte - September 19, 2018, 1:14 am

Hf needs a contract so that you can deal dispute . Its invalid if you dont have one.

Second scam report. I think he is doing exit scam

RasingPrices - September 19, 2018, 1:43 am it doesnt login or u mean its locked once u login?

as im sure alot of reddit sellers sell faulty accts here as in can login but then locked from posting etc valid report since as op said he purchased via an autobuy and no way to auto use a contract as of that time Since you didn't use Contracts this deal dispute is considered invalid. Read the sticky in this section.
