Thread: Whats your biggest regret?

Business - September 19, 2018, 5:06 am

People of HF, what's your biggest regret?

Mine is probably losing my liscence when I was younger. It set me back quite a bit and it was a fuckin' struggle to get around.

Mr. Robot - September 19, 2018, 5:10 am

Learning and experiencing things I probably shouldn't have at such an age.

Riyu - September 19, 2018, 5:11 am

Not doing my best in High School.

Spending money on dumb shit that I didn't need at all.

XanaxHeister - September 19, 2018, 5:15 am

Playing games instead of making money or learning. Eating like a pig instead of hitting the gym. Being anti-social because of my social fears instead of being social.

Infamia - September 19, 2018, 5:19 am

My biggest regret thus-far is probably a bit more personal than I'd like to admit, but my second biggest regret was not getting into programming earlier at like 6-7.

Free Kurdistan - September 19, 2018, 5:23 am

Rushing high school without caring about grades.

007 - September 19, 2018, 5:47 am

Gaming. I wasted so much precious time and money because of games.

Dark Star - September 19, 2018, 5:49 am

Not waiting for 10 000x on bustabit, while saying that this roll will make me rich with 2$ bet. Got pussies and closed on 20x.

losing my bitcoin wallet.

Matt Bomer™ - September 19, 2018, 6:03 am

I spent my first year in college with girls and didn't concentrate on studies, had I did not do that, I would have been a far better person that I am not

RAT - September 19, 2018, 6:52 am

No regrets either, life's too short to live in the past and regret shit...

Prawnster - September 19, 2018, 6:52 am my biggest regret is the amount I use to procrastinate on shit like games, would be in an even better place by now if I hadn't lol

DopplerAF - September 19, 2018, 7:01 am

Biggest regret is I don't have regrets.

Blade - September 19, 2018, 7:33 am

My biggest regrets would be... Not caring about high school, doing drugs (K2 mainly,) and getting into so much juvenile trouble with the law and losing my license for a year. I was actually expelled from high school my senior year for drugs. I have since acquires my GED and I'm currently going to school for Networking and Security. You can turn your life around. If there is a will, there's a way.

same with me , gaming has taken to much of my time

it's so freaking lame , ?

s1nister - September 19, 2018, 9:36 am

I have wasted my time playing games like many users but I don't regret it even 1% as there should be an equal balance between work and play.

And coming back to topic, What's my biggest regret?

Posting in this thread

Not having enough confidence in myself. Related to the previous point, a big regret for most of us is questioning why we had such little confidence in ourselves. Why did we allow the concerns of others to weigh so heavy on us instead of trusting our own beliefs? Maybe we didn't think we were worth having what we wanted. Maybe we just thought poorly of ourselves. Later on, we wish we could have been more self-confident.

All you can do is try to ignore it and remember who you truly are.

I regret leaving school a few years before graduating. Lost a lot of my friends who went in a different direction and I didn't care about my future.

It's not so much about losing possible jobs from no grade 12, to me it's more about missing out on learning certain things.

I've always enjoyed reading and writing and I've always enjoyed learning about history for instance, missing out on the advanced levels of those things in high school will affect me for the rest of my life.
