Spotify - September 20, 2018, 10:51 pm

My online business had recently cleared $275,000 $750,000 in sales online since I had opened it in February. So I decided to spoil my self a little bit

Only 23 years old, so I feel that I am doing pretty well for my age ?

Following up with my flex pic

I can't really go into too much detail, but its strictly online, and pretty much is 75-80% profit completely legal

You'll always be a daddy's boy

Yea thank you. Have a good day. You realize that on the internet anyone can say that they own anything, obviously I was joking by saying that, but people can't tell on the internet unless told, and I should've put a Spoiler saying "jk" or something.

Not tryna start beef my guy, but if someone shit in your cereal then don't take it out on me bro.

Nice car. My brother just spent some of his earnings on the New Audi. Online business's can make a lot of money. I personally always spend my money on family and then what I have left I always just throw around here and there lol of course I always save my main profits.

$40 a month in the winter, will probably be about $25~ a month during the summer.

Plenty of free charge points all around me, so I hardly notice a difference

That's just the cost to charge it. Needless to say my commute to work is 10 minutes. It's just cheap to charge the car. (Even though the electrical costs in my state are in the top 5 most expensive)

Can't give too much detail on it, but it's a fairly saturated market, just had to plenty of advertising/marketing to make my way to the top
