With proper networking the Anime clothing/Decal market on IG seems like a easy way to make money. I don't plan on participating in your venture but I think that may be a good idea with the right artist and decent start up expense.

It's not about making money, I'm not looking for short term income as well.
But thanks for the idea!

This looks really cool! I would like so much to contribute but I don't think I can offer anything ? even though I always search for news from my favorite series. I'm not into otaku community actually...
The only thing I can offer for sure is my review ?

you have nothing to offer in my opinion, you can say you have contacts but your pitch is weak.

why would i want to work with you? if you can prove to me that you are worth more than nothing, i make be interested in investing my time and resources. right now, you look weak. prove me wrong.

you don't even know me, you don't even know my plans you didn't even bother to do a simple greeting and starts questioning my "capabilities" sorry to say, i would not even bother to work with you, have a good day.

op read my user title, I could be one of the best connections you'll probably have but with an attitude like that you won't get very far.

1. We are not looking for "illegal" publishers online nor anything near to explicit contents.
2. We fund on ideas, not looking for funds.
3. The network is registered under sole proprietorship.
4. We need representatives from other countries as it will be a worldwide platform.
5. We are looking for ideas and partners, not hiring nor looking for sponsors.
6. We are NOT looking for connections (We already do)
7. I am only looking for writers and illustrators, but of course, if there are more contributors it will be better.

No hate or anything, I didn't force you to work with me neither.

Hope this clears any misunderstanding. I do not want to entertain people who are not interested either ty
