I would avoid dealing with this user at any cost
User wanted me to go first, I said we will use a middleman than he said okay
After I contacted the middleman he stopped responding

I think this guy is trying to catch small fishes but he got into a whale which was his biggest mistake

Gave OP the benefit of the doubt and went first on a $270 Amazon Gift card order for 70% bitcoin.
Sent him $190 of bitcoin and he never replied back and ghosted me. :/

I knew something was on, else he would just reply to me in the thread. Start a dispute from your contract!

Yea, he completely ignored me when i brought up a MM about his UK AGC. I asked for him to go first or we use a mm, read and no reply back. Sent him another message and he read that too, never got a reply back.

This person literally is plain stupid.

He asked me to use a MM, I simply replied I do not see it being worth the hassle.

At first sight I did not trust this person, I am just refusing my service to him.

Everyone Deal With Caution when talking to this person.

Kind Regards,
Xangu.

Huhm but after reading this thread I understand why he wants to use MM and your only reason not to use MM is that it's a 'hassle'. That's awfully suspicious don't you think?

Why should people take caution when that guy takes caution himself hahah

Sent you a PM about this OP
