Thread: V3ndor Group

Omniscient - September 28, 2018, 3:35 pm

We have added a Vendors group to HF. Currently it's invite only. The new group will provide additional selling tools for members in the group. Vendors will get certain permissions and a new userbar. Here are some highlights:

V3ndors is a secondary group so you will remain as Ub3r or r00t but also get V3ndor.

Group image:

Group star is unique.

Group username color is green (#2D7E52), bold, and has a shadow.

Max Post Length setting is 40,000 characters

Private Vendor forum

Ability to use Contract Templates which allow you to add Autobuy Links.

Group fee is currently $100 (BTC, LTC, ETH, DASH, XMR, or BCH).

I will be sending PMs to invited members. Eventually an application will be created.

More information about V3ndors will be coming. Hopefully this will greatly enhance the HF experience for active Marketplace sellers and the overall community.

Thank you.

iNuke - September 28, 2018, 3:37 pm

Awesome feature.

I like the idea and I hope it will make the Marketplace experience better!

Omniscient - September 28, 2018, 3:49 pm

About a dozen members were invited.

Riyu - September 28, 2018, 3:50 pm

The group looks pretty cool.

Crypt - September 28, 2018, 3:52 pm

This is actually really cool.

I don't do anything in the marketplace but I think this was a good addition.

Stooshy - September 28, 2018, 3:55 pm

Giving you $100 and getting no bytes FeelsBadMan

Angela White - September 28, 2018, 3:59 pm

that userbar looks pretty nice not gunna lie.

Trappy - September 28, 2018, 4:04 pm

Maybe add some sort of check mark or money sign award too :)

luke - September 28, 2018, 4:04 pm

Hoping to be invited into this in the future. Will keep $100 locked away, looks great.

Lavish Living - September 28, 2018, 4:05 pm

damn lucky dozen vendors! sick new group tbh, should give em a nice new olive green diamond award too :P

Omniscient - September 28, 2018, 4:06 pm

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3323516>

Trappy is first official V3ndor.

PerfectStorm - September 28, 2018, 4:06 pm

Very cool group. Looking good as always.

Banter - September 28, 2018, 4:13 pm

Very nice group hopefully i can join up some day.

yet again Omni great work!

SIM-3257834 - September 28, 2018, 4:13 pm

You should add an award to it as well.

Trappy - September 28, 2018, 4:16 pm

Thank you Omniscient, HF for life

PerfectStorm - September 28, 2018, 4:16 pm

Yes that would be cool too.

Bluffer - September 28, 2018, 4:28 pm

I'm excited to see where this goes and hopefully be able to use it on my products soon.

red - September 28, 2018, 4:31 pm

This looks sick, if you need more testers hmu.

Vossen - September 28, 2018, 4:33 pm

Damn this looks sick, especially with the $$$ replacing the stars haha. Jealous.
Good work.

iNviZ - September 28, 2018, 5:10 pm

That's bad ass. I like this a lot.

SIM-2470866 - September 28, 2018, 5:50 pm

So even the Invited or accepted ones they have to pay the $100 Fee right? Its lifetime?
I'm so interested because of the Autobuy services.

casperr - September 28, 2018, 5:52 pm

Looks great buddy :DDDDDDD

Yu Yan - September 28, 2018, 6:00 pm

I'm not a seller but i like the $ signs replacing the stars, just for that reason and the userbar i want to be in lol

Almonds - September 28, 2018, 6:02 pm

Man-

you mean you can't take my money already? ?

Just kidding; looking good! Gives me a reason to set shop back up now that i've got some leeway with my studies.

Bear - September 28, 2018, 6:13 pm

Glad to get the opportunity to be a part of this so soon!

Thanks a lot Omni

Punisher - September 28, 2018, 6:14 pm

The color choice and the dollar signs are fucking awesome. Nice work.

I wish I could spend more time on HackForums to eventually qualify for this, my job and family restrict my free time so it makes it difficult to respond to customers in a timely matter. During these next 6 months I want to focus all of my attention and free time on working from home to spend more time with my family and to live a happier and healthier life. This gives me a little extra motivation knowing that the HackForums now has a safer more active marketplace with the ability to advance if you're a successful vendor.

Thank you for this opportunity you're giving everyone!

SIM-1097664 - September 28, 2018, 6:46 pm

So this seems to be pretty marketed to those who sell some sort of product. Is there anything in this new group that a currency exchanger would benefit from?

I find it more unfortunate its invite only currently...

Neodraxis - September 28, 2018, 7:46 pm

Hopefully this group gets out of invite-only soon. Never get into that kind of stuff. :/

Super interested in regards to the autobuy it'll be super useful in making more sales.

emotionull - September 28, 2018, 9:05 pm

hopefully this works up the marketplace a bit more.

WageWolf - September 28, 2018, 9:23 pm

Got $100 on deck, once applications are open.

Got 35 B-Rating, should be more than qualified?

Another change for the better! ?

Pikachu - September 28, 2018, 9:31 pm

Awesome to see that this new group is finally live. The group color is really nice too, i like it.

Bezo - September 28, 2018, 9:45 pm

Haven't used the market in a while but seems like a new premium group to aim for if planning to sell here.

@Omni, not sure if it is just me but I am on chrome and it does not display the green username.

Vitani's Mate - September 28, 2018, 10:27 pm

Looks awesome.

Sadly I will probably never be a vendor since I am never really in the marketplace. If I am it is usually exchange.

AlphaIndustries - September 28, 2018, 10:34 pm

Sounds like a group i'd like to be in.

Mr Kewl - September 28, 2018, 10:34 pm

HF keeps getting more interesting every day.

RAT - September 28, 2018, 10:44 pm

An interesting group indeed. Great job. Really like this update.

Truth - September 28, 2018, 10:46 pm

Very cool, reminds me of the old group "marketers"

Shad0wM - September 28, 2018, 11:08 pm

This is great, its going go be easier for big sellers to operate with those features.

Traum - September 28, 2018, 11:11 pm

Glad to see this was implemented so quickly! Let's hope it helps the marketplace.
Those features do look really good.

Java - September 29, 2018, 12:14 am

I am interested. Can you send me the info?

psico - September 29, 2018, 12:18 am nice incorporation! This will be good for bussiness

Prince™ - September 29, 2018, 12:18 am

Looks to be a great group. Wish I had an invite to join the beta team as well.

Never the less, all the best Omni and V3ndors.

Business - September 29, 2018, 1:11 am

Nice addition! That's a great way to support HF sellers. Looking forward to more updates.

System[X] - September 29, 2018, 1:37 am

Wow that was quick to add. Great things to come from this. Just waiting for the autobuy now.

I hope i get invited to this group :)

Thanks

Originalkillit - September 29, 2018, 1:39 am

Cool
is this mean
Vendor replaces r3kt
I see vendor>r3kt in terms of features
Just forgive me if I am wrong and correct me

Nadisty - September 29, 2018, 1:40 am

Slightly confused. Vendors is invite only and then you pay the $100 to enter the group? Or is it Invite only and buy in? Love the three $$$ signs though.

Gamer - September 29, 2018, 1:41 am

That's neat, great addition to the forum Omni, primarily to the marketplace of course.

Great work!

000 - September 29, 2018, 1:57 am

I can see Trappy being upgraded to V3ndor group. Love the group stars! :)

I'm starting to doubt you're even a customer because you clearly don't know how our service works, you try to trash our sales by posting in threads that are completely unrelated to our service and then you ignore messages in private where I'm asking you to be specific so I can explain to you what to do.

I'm not responding you in this thread regarding AutoFications anymore because I'm (unlike you) not interested in getting my warning level increased for off-topic posting.

Im not sure I understand the purpose. If this is stating that HF solidifies that X user is not a scammer and that their services are valid, then sure, great idea. Is there a contract for those who are vendors? Ensuring there is some sort of contract allows for repercussion for scams and issues.

Okay that doesn't clarify my question: Does this mean that users should trust these sellers for services (endorsed by HF)?

Just like with everything else, all deals are done at your own risk. Is it another thing to take into consideration, like trust scans and B-Rating? Sure, but it doesn't mean the person can never scam you.

Personally just looks like the UB3R-style type of upgrade.

Needs to be approved by admin -> accepted -> Get additional features and tools to help in the marketplace

Just providing more features to help sell their products/services.

EDIT: I think the part that caught your attention is the invited by HF part

Like Beta testing

Correct. It is to test out the new Contract Template feature. In the future it will be an application process but you will still likely need to have certain market stats to apply. So you might need X number of contracts within Y time period to even be able to apply. This group isn't designed for every member or people simply looking to collect groups. This group is designed for members who use the marketplace often.

I guess my largest concern is the possible abuse factor for the group. When I think of vendor, I clearly think a product supplier. While they may be vetted as people with the proper stats, it still makes me wonder how new members will interpret their rank. I'm not against it but if a new member gets scammed by one, it'll make the integrity of the group completely diminished.

New members buy plenty of trash ebooks already, so the vendor group won't make that any worse or better.

On a real note, there's guides to contracts stickied, guides to safe trading stickied, Help Docs, all sorts of things that promote the safest trading possible. If I was a new member I'd familiarize myself with the website before I started throwing money at people.
