Thread: I have a method to make 600\$-1000\$+ per week

BitsBunny - September 28, 2018, 10:54 pm

Hi guys,

Basically, I have a highly private method to make 600-1000$ per week. At some point you can't always do the method, but you will have made minimum 10k. This require some effort, but basically what I was thinking is should I sell the method as coaching the buyer, or should I write a tutorial? The thing is since this method is kind of guarded secret I don't like to write a big tutorial.

I was thinking to sell for 200-300$ ish. It's like really cheap, I could sell for more and it would still be worth.

Maybe you have more experience in marketing...

What do you think about writing the method or selling coaching?

Without actually knowing more about the method I would say it is probably a better idea to sell a coaching or training method instead of a written guide, or possibly a combination of a coached setup and a quick reference sheet or something?

In my opinion it is the best to sell the method and the coaching as a bonus.

You have to profit from everything bro

Alright that sounds good, but I wonder if I can get any buyers..

Show us earnings proof of this "guarded private method" lol

PolyGram - October 1, 2018, 3:25 am na if it makes more then 1k u have to sell for $19.99 here or it dont look legit and no one buy

GaviriaEscobar - October 1, 2018, 5:40 am yeah man want to know the method, PM me

I don't think you'll make any buyers since you are completely new to this forum.

Best option is to send out some VC to reputable members.

I have a highly private method to make 600-1000$ per week.

Then don't sell it at all, use it. This kid is blackhat or scammaz

It wouldn't sell for that price buddy, aim around $50 max. You'd need to have vouches from very trusted members as well. GLWS.

Yeah propably best if you dont get any buyers, cause this shit smells like a scam too. HAha, you want to sell the method for 200-300 dollars that could make you 10.000 dollars? Someone tell this dude to stop Hallucinating...

Sorry, mate, but I am a such guy who believes that if you selling a method which 100% makes you a lot of money, it doesnt work or something is wrong. Especially with 'private money making methods','secret method to make $1k weekly' and similar stuff. If it works, I am 100% sure you would keep silent and just make money without worrying about saturation, dealing with customers, spending time for writting sales page, spending time with support and so on.

If the product is well known business model like dropshipping , aff marketing, amazon, list building and so on, which can't get saturated and you just want to increase your profits with another business model (selling products,coachings) when I think it's much more legit.

There are so many 'private money making method' in premium marketplcae these days, it's like mushrooms after the rain.

And just ask yourself a question: Why person who have 'secret private money making method' and earning $1k weekly, want to sell few copies for $100-$300 and risking that the method will be leaked,shared or get saturated?

It doesn't make a sense.

But good luck to you!

Somehow OP makes $600-$1000 per week, wants to sell it for $200-$300 and here's a post from him:

Quote:I was wondering, what's the best way to convert organic traffic to money and make the most money. Also for auto-surf style servers, what is best? what are my options?

You guys have monetizing traffics websites to recommend?

Cyam - October 3, 2018, 8:10 am

I feel like your "perfect" method is not perfect at all. There is no way you would bother selling your "private" method that earns you $1000 weekly for $200-300.

Don't even bullshit me with your "What's wrong with making few bucks from selling this" because that would only saturate your so-called private method.

The moment I found a method to make 500-1000€ weekly I immediately left HF (selling-wise) because there is no way I would share my own method and saturate it for $200-300 when I can enjoy this amount permanently.

Trust me, anyone who makes that amount of money won't sell the method, period.
