i'm happy when others have succses but i call out fakers if you are earning a lot at a certain point you don't even care about bragging about it.

Had big gains & succses these days but didn't make a bragging thread since its pure time waste just like the post i'm making on you RN

It all depends on person to person who wishes to do it and who don't. Good luck earning $$$$.

Edit: When a person abuses and other person don't get insulted that insult goes back to the person who started insulting. Good people don't abuse but they encourage. Take care Doge.

I am not from Europe. Every country has a different set of rules. Apart I dont understand why people try to make negative impact if anyone wins. One should always cheer winners and get motivated to do on their own. Unbelievably weird !

Just signup at IQ options once you win any amount you can cash it.

Here what they say officially :

"We have no restrictions as to the minimum withdrawal amount — starting from $2, you can withdraw your funds on the following page: iqoption.com/withdrawal. To withdraw an amount less than $2, you will need to contact our Support Team for assistance. The maximum allowable withdrawal amount is $1,000,000. "

You mean a 1 min counter of buy/sell?

If that is what you need you can do it on IQ options. Currencys are best to trade on and eur/usd gives the best % of margin, MOre bidders more is the profit. Plus they have weekly tournaments. There is a lot if you have talent to bid a buy call or sell call. Let me know if I can help in any way.
