Thread: Scammed by <frutk uid=2361662> 90\$ PP

EthereumSeller - September 30, 2018, 8:03 am

It was 80$ BTC for his 90$ PP

Stopped replying after I told him the btc was already sent :( also if you check his rep it looks botted

Where is the link to the contract? Without that the dispute is invalid

Your thread is going to be closed by staff since you didn't you the contract system

Also rep remarks are canned now so that's why there's a lot of the same.

EthereumSeller - September 30, 2018, 8:23 am

ughh fuck I was very new to the contract system

Definitely take some time to fully examine the system before dealing anymore. It will help you out

Don't you vouch + rep known scammers? Pretty sure I have a few screenshots of you agreeing to rep some multis... Also resolving rep with multis.

Well, hello. I do not give a fuck about a lowlife (you) scamming for chump change (must be sad being poor, right?). Neither did I get scammed so I ain't mad. Just highlighting what a lowlife you are, lmao.

Seems like he's taking advantage of people who don't know how to use contracts in order to avoid disputes validation.

PerfectStorm - October 2, 2018, 6:37 pm

Sorry for your loss but you should use contract system.

Omniscient - October 3, 2018, 10:06 am

At least you were smart enough to deal onsite. A review of PMs shows the proof for a scam.

He's closed now. Next time things will be easier to review if you use Contracts.

Guys, this is me from a different account.

I never meant to scam him, I just wasn't able to get to my PC, my mom had passed away! My account was banned before I could do anything, and I don't blame the admins, I was unresponsive.

Please let me know your PayPal Email, I will Surely send you all the money + the compensation. Sorry for the trouble!
