Thread: What accounts would you like to see integrated on a PVA account creator bot?

traveling-monk - October 1, 2018, 4:36 pm

Hi guys,

There is an account creator bot coming onto the market in the next few days, and I wanted to get some feedback from you and see what accounts would be of value to include.

The bot can phone verify accounts as well.

Let me know which accounts would interest you to include.

Thanks, Guys.

What he does is that he gets people convinced of his services and by so doing he gets lots of orders . Once he gets these lots of orders he closes his thread using the excuse of too many orders and stops talking to people who has paid him for his services thereby ripping them. He is a freaking ripper , i know he has done these to some people on here . I dont need my money back btw but i just need other people on here to know this guys as a 2 faced lying piece of shit he is . Damn ripper.. To be sure check how many threads he has closed . Duh

Next time make sure you deal through the contract system.
