Thread: Question: We can't use the term repped on HF.

Mr. Robot - October 2, 2018, 10:33 am

Is that true? It's called popularity not reputation so instead of 'repped' do we say 'popped'?

Bruh i'm a pop you real quick k?

Trappy - October 2, 2018, 10:35 am

I'm a sick fuck I like a quick pop

Business - October 2, 2018, 10:35 am

I doubt they've banned the use of the term, but at the same time I know they're trying to stay away from the old system.

Nah not about being banned, it's just using the correct terminology in reference to the old system.

"Jeremy will you pop me real quick? I'm one away from 1 pop!"

"If you enjoyed my ebook, please hit me with a quick pop."

"Don't scam, you'll get popfucked."

You can still get rekt it's just different requirements I'm gonna get it soon. The requirements for it now is 1k posts, 1k rep, and be on the forum for 1k days. Being on here for 1k days is really only my problem, I have to wait nearly another year to get rekt now.

Directly from my user CP.

R3KT (Set as Display Group)

This is the promotion group of HF. Earn 5000 reputation, 1000 posts, and 1000 days registered to automatically be upgraded.

(Yes I have r3kt just repping 3p1c for a while as it's being removed)
