You and your boy got good voices and flow. No homo.

Track could be a bit cleaner, but aside from that, it's dope.

yo someone else peep this shit its fuego af

Mr. Corleone - October 5, 2018, 10:57 am

Cool song, although the mixing seems off in a way.

It felt like the lyrics of verse 2 didn't have much meaning, but it went good with the beat.

Verse 1 is sick tho, really didn't expect it. The hook also catchy.

How much it cost if you don't mind sharing? Could PM if you're not allowed to disclose in public.

Justhetip - October 6, 2018, 4:56 pm

The beat is good and first verse and hook are good but whoever recorded/mixed the 2nd verse should rethink before wanting to push something out. It fucked the rest of the song up. I did really like it. Nice to see you on promoting sounds.

You can pm the channel they used and see how much it cost to post of if they just feature.

Indii G killed the start of that song! I'm trying to figure out who he sounds like... I have another artist on the tip of my tongue but I can't pinpoint it.

This song had a Matt Burton vibe to me.

Who produced it?

They said they're packed with requests and suggested the spotify deals. Snakes.
