Hi, first I want to start this off as you can see I am in the neg, that is due to my ignorances of not reading the rules. I have read the rules and this sections rules. So if I am breaking any rules I am sorry.

Site: Ewhore.net

Just a growing small community of e-whores, As far as I know, we are the only active e-whoring dedicated forum. I am not much a writer so I am going to stop here.

Thank you for viewing!

While I'm certainly not a fan of more forums in the world, I think it's cool you're focusing on such a topic. More importantly, that domain is OG. You usually don't catch an HQ domain with a HQ TLD.

Goodluck bro.

I like the shadows mixed with pink color. What I don't like is the chat on an index page, it really takes off page load speed.
