Shadow of The Tomb Raider is pretty good. Great graphics and story. Granted, I still say the first Tomb Raider has the best story line with the sun queen and all.

Last year my favorite game was Prey.

Uh probably RDR2 for me I would say.

Yeah BLOPS 4 is pretty fun to be completely honest with you guys.

Lots of shit being said about it, but COD still makes a solid game, plus with the new black out game mode. Makes it even more fun in my opinion. I like the competition that it involves.
