Thread: Our Apartment Living Room Setup!

Mark Zuckerberg - October 6, 2018, 5:14 pm

Currently 3 dudes 2 bedrooms, 1 bunk bed.

Kind of our chill area for all the girls we don't have over and all the friends we don't have. Good movie watching experience though.

Equipment for those techies interested:

Receiver: Denon AVRX2400H

Surround Speaker: Infinity Kappa 5.1 Series II

Center: Polkaudio CS LS-1582

Sub: Earthquake Supernova mkii

TV: 50 inch MU6070 4k Samsung

Router: Netgear Nighthawk X10

Game Consoles: Xbox One X and PS4 Pro

Do you guys have anything cool for your living rooms?

Tempr5 - October 6, 2018, 7:19 pm

Deany - October 6, 2018, 7:20 pm

Banter. - October 6, 2018, 7:21 pm

Dam that's some serious Audio, how dose it sound ?

Omniscient - October 6, 2018, 7:28 pm

Not a bad chill zone. Why did you go with a Denon receiver? I have Klipsch speakers and an Onkyo receiver.

I like that your spot is clean too btw.

The annoying issue is living in apartments you're limited in how loud you can watch movies. Can't wait to get my first house after my middle east "vacation".

Korvo - October 6, 2018, 7:56 pm

Looks like a pretty comfy setup dude.

Planning on adding anything else to it?

Lion - October 6, 2018, 7:59 pm

What's up with the rocket launcher on your porch? Calling the ATF dude.

I like that your spot is clean too btw. Yeah I try to keep it as clean as possible, but I also live with 2 slobos who don't do basic cleaning which is very annoying.

As for going with a denon, it was more of what was in my budget, the features it had. I was originally going to use some of my dads old outlaw audio stuff but it didn't support HDMI which was not ideal.

Planning on adding anything else to it?Nothing specifically yet. I do want to get a 65 inch tv instead of the 50, but unless I get a super good deal I wont be doing that anytime soon.
