Here's why I am suspicious of Betteroff and why you're better off not dealing with this user.

1. He has 2 BLANK completed contracts with 2 users who have 0 posts.
2. One of those 2 users was referred by him, earning him 100 bytes.
3. He then used these bytes to start buying rep.
4. Proceeds to offer domains for sale for \$75 - too good to be true.
5. Once he was asked to provide proof he stopped replying to the thread.
6. Immediately after being accused of scamming, he began attempting to exchange currency.
7. Viewing his posts shows he's gone to 10+ threads offering to buy whatever it is they're selling.
8. His domain thread looks extremely similar to this thread, where the OP was a scammer.
9. When the fact that he had two suspicious contracts was brought up, he ignored it completely.
10. If you compare the evidence and begin piecing it together, it all seems too much to be coincidence.

Also, I pmed both users he was attempting to exchange currency with to warn them, and one of them replied back stating he was very sketchy and that when he tried to cancel the contract he accidentally completed it instead. The other said he was insisting he go first and didn't go through with the deal when told no.

As always, deal with caution and at your own discretion.

I may be completely wrong, and if so I owe Betteroff an apology..

..but if I'm right he can go fuck himself.

Thanks ?
