This is disgraceful. Kaleb if you're really scamming this guy for $45; a BIG shame on you & I hope the whole community knows what you did. (If true) (And truth it looks to be). Perhaps Kaleb can reply to this thread and give us a story about what happaned, AND PAY OP (elterco) back the $45.

Best of luck OP.

I mean nobody really deserves to get scammed... but yea, definitely should have done some research on him. A simple search of his UID would tell you all you need to know.

Sorry to hear about this man, glad you filled out a dispute like I suggested. If you're ever having doubts about a trade, dig into the person's account. You can always use a middleman or ask other reputable members for advice as well.

DamienVC - October 12, 2018, 10:53 am

He has several scam reports, I'll do a legit deal with you to lessen your loss a bit :) PMed.

MR. MORNINGSSTAR - October 12, 2018, 10:54 am

Hope it gets resolved! What a shame.

Trappy - October 13, 2018, 3:02 pm

Kaleb has so many scam reports. Since you used a contract though, maybe he'll be closed.

elterco - October 13, 2018, 3:04 pm

He has been banned.

I cant get my money back but at least, he won't be scamming anyone with this acc

Glad he got banned. Good guys doing good work. Hope the $45 comes back in a way in the near future, one way or another.

You could probably chargeback and have his fortnite account banned.
