I mean, when buying things like that you should always be cautious.

I have purchased a Gift Card balance from him and it worked also I went first and it was smooth.
Also, he helped me about how to use it.

Amazon didn't ban my account I just got my orders shipped and delivered today.

Try forum currency exchange sections, there are plenty of them

The currency exchange is a good place. Also pax but I wouldn't trust everyone there. Gotta look for the people with good feedback.
