Thread: How to earn \$1500+ in a week

MoneyDuck - October 15, 2018, 5:44 pm

I am wondering how I can support myself with 2 cats. I need a method or something to sell to earn at least $1000 in a week with cash in hand. Also, I only have a phone as my laptop needs a battery. I will be getting that fixed soon as I just moved.

Did you post this on FB?

I replied to this exact question on FB recently

Let's change it to $5,000 in 5days

Sit down & make a list of your skills.

Fastest way would be selling B2B services to local businesses, businesses who don't have a website yet or any social media or marketing help they may need.

Selling leads to dentists,chiros
Services people use regularly

Use FB advertising, select the business and search "People who have recently moved" advertise to people within 10km radius to the business
If you are selling leads to a dentist, only target women.
(Attempting to target mothers who bring the whole family,brings advertising costs down)
This can cost you $50 a month and you can sell for $500+

If you have $0
You need to middleman & sell something to a business
Be of service, help them
Help them make more & give them more "time" *apologies I was going to be more helpful, but "gdz$" lazy comment put me off.

I like this plan. You just need to dedicate your time to do a lot of those things. Go around to businesses, find prospects, sell. It's really as simple as that.
