He hasn't been online on here in a while, I'd give him a little time though. Maybe his website is just down temporarily, it's happened before.

If this thread is still open, i have Broad crypter contact.. only have sale for 8ppl and could get few people licensed through me.... got proof of contact and everything.. says it is 1k$ a month and will soon come public with a "rat" but crypter still private cos nothing like it out there, he will sell to his old customers.
