$110 from woot.com today only. Not a bad deal. Would be a very cool item to have nowadays.

I never really understood these bulletproof backpacks. Why do you need that? Same as bulletproof phone cases, you can drop it from idk, a fcking plane and nothing would happen... like it happens on a daily basis.

I just think it's pumped up product and as I can remember bulletproof backpacks were most sold dropshipping item last year or something like that.

Yin Yang - October 17, 2018, 11:36 am

Seems rather inexpensive for being bulletproof. Has it been thoroughly tested lol?

Self explanatory of why you would need a "bulletproof backpack" look up how many people have gotten shot by misfire etc. It could be a nice source of protection as well.

I don't know about the state in your country but I don't need to wear bulletproof vest/backpack while buying a milk here.

I guess it's helpful in the USA.

This is what I want to know. It says it can stop 9mm and .44 but I'm wondering if that means direct center shots and only one or two. Almost definitely isn't going to stop .223.

DeMeR - October 17, 2018, 8:28 pm

If I lived in america i'd pick one up but i think im okay out here in Canada

Who Soup - October 17, 2018, 8:37 pm

I've heard mixed opinions about bulletproof backpacks but personally I feel that it would be irresponsible to not take that precaution if you're in a financial position to do so.

You have clearly never visited the United States. <3

devnull - October 18, 2018, 2:30 pm

I am so sad that I'm late and it's sold out as I would have bought this. I actually have a tactical bulletproof vest that I store away with 2 front plates and 2 side plates.

Never turn your back(pack) on your enemy.

Have you heard of this place called America?

Gay - October 18, 2018, 9:53 pm

This is the most American product I've ever seen, and I'm Canadian Shots fired, unironically.

TheChaosKiller - October 19, 2018, 10:55 am

There's a whole bunch of fake ads for these on Facebook, where the buyer is getting shipped really shitty quality Chinese knockoffs that have some material in but definitely isn't Kevlar. Sad that we even have to consider buying these things, but even worse that people are trying to scam with inferior products.

Prettykitty - October 19, 2018, 2:17 pm

I want one but I pretty sure that you need a license in Canada to use bulletproof things i.e vest

ZuGgY - October 19, 2018, 2:53 pm

Well I'll be damned. I don't really need it, but that's fucking neat.

Blazin - October 19, 2018, 2:59 pm

The new rule in Americanna. Make everything bullet-proof. It must be bulletproof!

Nice back-pack though. I would be more into a big storage one where I can fit a million things.

Ram - October 21, 2018, 2:45 am

Omni posting made it sold out :P Too bad im too late to buy unless they restock :)

True though.

No need for something like that in Australia.

sutt - October 27, 2018, 9:34 am i saw an ad on yt for this

pms - October 27, 2018, 9:35 am

Bulletproof Backpack's huh, sounds like something schools should give out for free to students these days.

savaged. - October 27, 2018, 10:21 am if you live in america this is a must-buy.

Dra2020 - October 29, 2018, 11:29 am

Why would anyone need a bulletproof backpack

kingpking - November 1, 2018, 8:56 am

I don't see the point of this, unless you're carrying racks in them haha :D

Osiris094 - November 1, 2018, 5:58 pm

I think they're mainly for kids, with the School shootings in American and all.

Narrate - November 1, 2018, 6:05 pm

Saw one of these on Tactical Rifleman's channel.
I think that one looked much sleeker.

Atentutan - November 2, 2018, 1:49 am

Peace Family is the backpack real bullet proof ?

Lot66 - April 16, 2019, 10:50 am

I'll need 4, on on my back. One to hold on my front just in case someone wants to steal the bag off my back, and two for accessory.

Yes children should have these.

It's been sold out unfortunately but you always find the best deals.

mckevinswift - April 27, 2019, 3:36 am

Here in the UK it's highly unlikely that you're ever going to get shot.

However, you should be vigilant at all times.

There are two simple steps you must take to avoid getting shot:

First step: don't go into dodgy areas

Second step: run.

NGL, that ipod placement is asking to be stolen tho

Aren't bulletproof vests illegal? Why is this legal?

Edit: Just Googled it, I think it's only under certain circumstances it's illegal

Not in the USA, I also don't see why it would be illegal. Police have AP rounds in the event a criminal is wearing bullet "proof" gear.

Side note: Rated to stop most pistol rounds is nice. If a guy is shooting any rifle round you're screwed.

duplex - May 12, 2019, 11:37 pm

Live in the UK, sadly this is standard protection here, guns are rife through the UK now.
